

INDEX

- African countries
 - development of international arbitration, 9.3–9.5
- Arbitration agreement
 - conditional, 9.47–9.52
 - formal validity of, 9.20–9.21
 - nature of, 9.44
 - null or void, where, 9.44
 - optional, 9.44–9.47
 - whether mandatory or optional, 9.42, 9.44
- Arbitrator
 - impartiality and independence, 9.22
 - barristers from same chamber, 9.22
 - bias, appearance of or actual, 9.23
 - conflicting rights, 9.23–9.24
 - cultural differences, 9.24–9.25
 - nationality of arbitrator, 9.22–9.23
 - jurisdiction, capacity to rule on its, 9.21
 - pressure upon, 9.26–9.27
 - review curial orders, power to, 9.53
- Asian countries
 - development of international arbitration, 9.3–9.5
- Cape Lambert Resources v Metallurgical Corporation of China*
 - background, 9.40–9.41
 - decision, 9.41–9.42
 - issues and reasons—
 - commercial dispute, 9.41, 9.43
 - defendants ready and willing to arbitrate, 9.41, 9.43
 - dispute resolution clause, 9.41, 9.42
 - stay of proceedings subject to interim orders, 9.41, 9.43
 - sufficient reason not to refer to arbitration, 9.41, 9.42–9.43
 - legal framework, 9.41
 - synopsis, 9.39–9.40
- Criticism of international arbitration
 - protection from, 9.1
- Cultural conflicts
 - between cultures and international arbitration, 9.1
 - between cultures in international arbitration, 9.1–9.2
 - enforcement stage of awards. See ENFORCEMENT STAGE OF AWARDS
 - generally, 9.1–9.3, 9.36–9.37
 - passive start of international arbitration. See DEVELOPMENT OF INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION
 - preliminary stage of dispute resolution. See PRELIMINARY STAGE OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION
 - procedural stage. See PROCEDURAL STAGE
 - types of, 9.1
- Development of international arbitration
 - African countries, 9.5–9.6
 - Asian countries, 9.6–9.8
 - developed countries, 9.3
 - Latin American countries, 9.3–9.5
 - passive start, 9.3
 - poor countries, 9.3
- Dispute
 - commercial, 9.43
 - interpretation, 9.52–9.53
- Dispute resolution clause
 - conditional arbitration agreements, 9.47–9.52
 - nature of, 9.44
 - null or void, where, 9.44
 - optional arbitration agreements, 9.44–9.47
 - whether arbitration agreement mandatory or optional, 9.42, 9.44
- Enforcement stage of awards
 - annulment of award, 9.32–9.33
 - delocalised approach, 9.34
 - french practice, 9.34–9.35
 - territorial approach, 9.33
 - binding nature of award, 9.31–9.32
 - nature of arbitration, 9.27–9.28

- procedural issues, 9.35–9.36
- public policy–
 - arbitrability and, 9.29–9.30
 - boundaries of, defining, 9.31
 - causing lack of enforcement, 9.28–9.29
 - mandatory rules of law and, 9.30
- International Centre for the Settlement of Investment Disputes
 - arbitral procedure, 9.55–9.56
 - component parts of, 9.56
 - creation of, 9.55
 - history of, 9.55–9.57
 - misconceptions, 9.55–9.56
 - Secretary-General, role of, 9.56
- Latin American countries
 - development of international arbitration, 9.3–9.5
- New Zealand
 - arbitration in, 9.59–9.61
- Preliminary stage of dispute resolution
 - reluctance of parties towards international arbitration, 9.8–9.9. See also REASONS OF RELUCTANCE OF PARTIES TOWARDS INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION
- Procedural stage
 - arbitration agreement, formal validity of, 9.20–9.21
- arbitrator–
 - capacity to rule on its jurisdiction, 9.21
 - impartiality and independence, 9.22
 - barristers from same chamber, 9.22
 - bias, appearance of or actual, 9.23
 - conflicting rights, 9.23–9.24
 - cultural differences, 9.24–9.25
 - nationality of arbitrator, 9.22–9.23
 - pressure upon, 9.26–9.27
 - evidentiary stage, 9.25–9.26
 - flexible procedure, gaps due to, 9.19–9.20
 - guidelines, formulation of, 9.18
 - lawyers, admittance of, 9.25
- Reasons of reluctance of parties towards international arbitration
 - appeal system, effect of no, 9.13
 - applicable law–
 - choice of, 9.9–9.10
 - developing countries' laws, 9.10–9.11
 - harmonisation of arbitration laws, 9.11–9.12
 - barrier of 'why arbitration', 9.16–9.17
 - mistrust, element of, 9.15–9.16
 - party autonomy, 9.12–9.13
 - seat of arbitration, 9.13–9.15
 - supervisory body, 9.17–9.18
- Review of curial orders
 - power of arbitrator, 9.53
- Stay of proceedings
 - subject to interim orders, 9.43