Welcoming John Balfour as a member of the Board of Editors

On behalf of the Board of Editors, I am delighted to announce that John Balfour will join us as a member of our Board. It is a privilege to have John on board because we all know of his great contribution to the development of international air law. He deals with airline and other liability issues together with aviation cases as a partner of Clyde&Co. Prior Clyde&Co he was a partner with Frere Cholmely and Beaumont&Son, prominent London law firms handling aviation cases. John is the author of the book EC Community Air Law as well as many articles in which he has analysed the tricky relationship between EU air law and international air law.

The Board of Editors looks forward to working with John while relying on his eminent expertise and broad experience in the area of air law.
