

SITES INTERNET

The ASA Bulletin is proposing to its readers a section devoted to Internet sites of particular interest to practitioners in the field of international commercial arbitration. This list of those Internet sites is of course not exhaustive and will be updated in every new issues of the ASA Bulletin. This is therefore the eighth list of Internet sites of interest to our readers

We would very much appreciate our readers to contribute to the completion of this list by sending us any other interesting Internet sites devoted to the practice and the theory of international commercial arbitration. Any comments or suggestions should be sent to Patrick Dumberry (pdumberry@lalive.ch). The list of Internet sites published in previous Bulletins can also be provided via e-mail upon request. The present list of Internet sites is devoted to the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (the 1980 Vienna Convention).

Address	Operated by	Content
http://cisgw3.law.pace.edu/	Institute of International Commercial Law at Pace University School of Law (United States)	Pace database on the CISG and International Commercial Law: This site contains a very useful annotated guide to the Convention. This guide provides for each provision its legislative history, editorial comments, cross-reference to other subjects, as well as the case-law and the doctrine related to it. It also contains all the relevant material of the legislative history of the Convention. The site has a guide for the application of the Convention. There is a bibliography of CISG materials in no less than 24 languages, and more than 400 on-line version of several articles published in law journal, books, etc.

INTERNET

Address	Operated by	Content
http://www.cisg-online.ch/	Law Faculty of the University of Basel	This site contains case law of German speaking countries (including Switzerland), as well as various other material (such as the Secretariat Commentary, a bibliography) and a long list of links to other sites.
http://www.uncitral.org/en-index.htm	United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL)	‘Case Law on UNCITRAL Texts (CLOUT)’: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- ‘CLOUT’ is a searchable database on court decisions and arbitral awards relating to UNCITRAL texts including the Convention.</li> <li>- The site also includes a bibliography of recent writings related to the work of UNCITRAL and also a brief guide to UNCITRAL document research.</li> </ul>