

Subject Index

A

- Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), 174–183
 - Directive 2013/11/EU, 174–176
 - monitoring framework in the EU, 176–183
 - competent authorities as regulators, 182–183
 - mapping competent authorities, 180–182
 - rationale for, 176–179
- Althen v. Secretary of Health & Human Services*, 92
- APIs (Application Programming Interface), 865
- Aventis Pasteur v. O’Byrne*, 139
- Axo v. Nosa*
 - Belgian, punitive damages and U-turn, 676
 - from Dutch Law, 681–689
 - current position, 684–688
 - impact for legal practice, 688–689
 - Italian decision in European context, 682–684
 - punitive damages, 681–682

B

- Belgian perspective, punitive damages, 674–680
 - consequences for, 677–680
 - traditional antipathy, 674–676
 - U-turn in Axo v. Nosa, 676
- Big data approach, personalization of information, 297–309
- IT and disclosure mechanisms, 297–298
- method of analysis
 - broader legal context, 304–307
 - consumer behaviour, 302–303
 - doctrine insights, 303–304
 - solve problems, 307–309
 - technology approach, 301–302
- theoretical framework, 298–300

Blockchain-based smart contracts

- computer codes, 756–757
- cross-border issues, 835–839
- data protection issues
 - absence of middle men, 834–835
 - difficulty of controller identification, 829–831
- GDPR framework, 831–832, 840–842
- privacy-by-design options, 847–851
- right to deletion, 846–847
- transparency, 844–846
- evolution, 758–759
- formation process, 759–761
 - capacity, 768
 - consideration, 765–767
 - inclusion and validity of standard terms, 769–770
 - intention to create legal relations, 767–768
 - offer and acceptance, 762–765
- governance issues
 - data processing implications, 832–833
 - Internet platforms, 839–840
- individuals as data subjects and as controller, 843–844
- Private International Law, 759–761
- property right issues, 873–876
 - contractual techniques, 881–882
 - lawyer’s skill requirements, 881
- security right issues, 876–877
- states and public authorities’ role, 877–881
- transactional layers, 866–867
 - technological problems, 867–869
 - terminological problems, 867
- vending machine, example, 757
- WEF Report on, 833–834
- Blockchain Ordinance, 874
- Blockchains. See also. Blockchain-based smart contracts

- definition, 856–857
- electronic transacting platforms, 855–856
- ideological issues
 - decentralization, 860–863
 - openness, 863–864
- immutability, 865–866
- as ledgers, 864–865
- main divisions
 - permissioned, 859–860
 - permissionless, 858–859
- Breach of contract, non-pecuniary loss, 515–535
 - alleviation of distress
 - added value, 528
 - ‘objective’ added value, 529
 - ‘subjective’ added value, 529–531
 - anxiety, mental distress and disappointment, 534–535
 - classification of cases
 - contracts aimed at promisee, 526–531
 - incidental result, 531–535
 - concept of, 516–517
 - defensibility of compensation
 - assumption of risk, 523
 - fears of floodgates, 525
 - foreseeability, 523
 - higher costs of contracting, 524–525
 - problems of proof, 521–522
 - risk of excessive awards, 524
 - infringement of personality rights, 531–532
 - infringement of Praetium Affectionis, 532–533
 - physical inconveniences, 533–534
 - rights, duties, and wrongs, 517–521
- Buck v. Attorney General*, 320–321
- Bunge Corporation v. Tradax S.A.*, (1981), 620
- Burden of proof, causation, 61, 71
- C
 - Caledonia North Sea Ltd v. British Telecommunications plc*, 18
 - Canada Steamship v. R case*, 9
- CESL. See Common European Sales Law (CESL)
- Chen Xiuqin v. Wei Xilin*, 47–48
- China, smart contracts
 - Bitcoin regulations, 925–928
 - blockchain technology, 923–924
 - challenges and responses to challenges, 928–939
 - emerging technologies, 924–925
 - forms of application, 922
 - regulatory efforts, 939–941
- Chinese Case Law, 45–49
 - Chen Xiuqin v. Wei Xilin case*, 47–48
 - general provisions of civil Laws of 2017, 49
 - Liu Xiang v. Life Style Newspaper case*, 46
 - Marlene Dietrich case*, 46–47
 - Wang Sulan v. Tu Men & Zhu Dongli case*, 48
- Chinese Civil Code, 42–45
 - constitution of the PRC, 42–43
 - on the legislative model, 44–45
 - personality rights under GPCL, 43–44
 - remedial perspective, 43
 - special book, 44
- Common European Sales Law (CESL), 595
- Comparative property law, global, 283–285
- Conference Reports on smart contracts, 943–950
- Consumer ADR quality in the EU, 171–195
 - ADR monitoring framework
 - competent authorities, 182–183
 - rationale for, 176–179
 - vertical v. horizontal* approaches, 180–182
- Directive 2013/11/EU and ADR, 174–176
- loopholes in
 - competent authorities, 184–186
 - diverging monitoring behaviour, 187–189

- non-certified ADR providers, 189–190
 - quality standards, 186–187
 - more effective approach
 - revising architectures, 191–192
 - revising monitoring rules, 192–194
 - upgrading quality criteria, 194
 - Consumer protection and products liability, 119–140
 - burden of proof
 - judgment of 21 June 2017, addition, 131–133
 - judgment of 21 June 2017, antecedents, 126–131
 - case, 123–126
 - European products liability law, 121–122
 - full harmonization, 133–139
 - Contract Law, 449–451
 - Contract law in a global world, 157–163
 - aims, 157–160
 - remarks, 162–163
 - two path-breaking agendas, 160–162
 - Cooper Industries, Inc. v. Leatherman Tool Group, Inc.*, 693
 - Cornerstones of Tort Law*, 165–166
 - Cuthbertson v. Lowes*, 277–278
 - Cyber insurance contracts, Law and Economics, 371–397
 - empirical strategy, 395–396
 - insuring IT, cyber risk and potential of
 - characteristics of, 375–378
 - of insuring, 380–381
 - market failures, 378–380
 - prices and competition
 - adverse selection, 390–392
 - and competitors, 386–389
 - correlated risks and coverage, 382–386
 - moral hazard, 393–395
 - reverse adverse selection, 392–393
 - research, 406–420
 - results
 - coverage, 399–402
 - deductibles, 402–403
 - insurers and their strategies, 404–406
 - premiums, 398–399
 - requesting procedure, 397–398
 - risk reduction measures, 404
- D
- Damage caused by vaccines, remedies, 57–95
 - defective products, 58–60
 - issue in France
 - causation, 80–86
 - defectiveness, 86–88
 - issue in Germany
 - general Tort law, 74–75
 - under German law, 78
 - medical liability, 77
 - pharmaceuticals act, 69–74
 - social security law, 75–77
 - issue in United Kingdom
 - defectiveness of the vaccine, 91–93
 - Duncan Fairgrieve*, 93–95
 - proof of causation, 90
 - statutory fund for vaccine damage, 89–90
 - Italian legal system, vaccines case law
 - product liability in vaccine cases, 65–69
 - proof of causation, Italian civil court, 61–63
 - public compensation fund, 60
 - public compensation fund, case law on, 63–64
 - Tort law for dangerous activities, 64–65
 - DCFR. See Draft Common Frame of Reference (DCFR)
 - De Cavel v. De Cavel*, 563
 - Denial of restitution under Italian Law, 255–263
 - good morals as standard of conduct, 259–261
 - before Italian Court, 256–257
 - in pari causa turpitudine* Rule, 257–259

- Digital platforms
 - E-Commerce Directive 2000/31/EC, 904-908
 - European Commission on, 908-910
 - liability approaches
 - flexible-system approach, 913-916
 - retailer-liability approach, 916-919
- Digital revolution, challenges for law in practice (Conference Report), 707-712
- Artificial Intelligence and autonomous systems, 710-711
- Blockchain-based technology, 709-710
- data economy, 708
- IoT, 711-712
- Discussion Draft Provisions on digital platforms
 - assessment of liability, 913-916
 - content, 911-913
- Divisible divorced v. unitary divorce, 568-573
- Dowling & Rutter v. Abacus Frozen Foods Ltd*, 279, 280-281
- Draft Common Frame of Reference (DCFR), 595
- Drug-related injuries, compensation, 467-513
 - current schemes
 - in Denmark, 475-476
 - in Finland, 477-479
 - in Norway, 473-475
 - in Sweden, 471-473
 - liability of damage, 486-488
 - no-fault family, 501-503
 - Nordic countries
 - Case Study I: Vioxx*, 482-484
 - Pandemrix vaccine and narcolepsy*, 484-485
 - for pharmaceutical injuries, 508-513
 - purpose, 468-470
 - qualifications
 - fair distribution of damages
 - principle, 506-507
 - fairness, 505-506
 - functionality, 506
 - transparency, 503-505
 - voluntary compensation system, 507-508
 - survey schemes
 - in Germany, 489-495
 - in Japan, 496-499
 - in New Zealand, 499-501
 - in Poland, 495-496
 - in UK, 488-489
- Dutch law perspective, Axo v. Nosa, 681-689
 - current position, 684-688
 - Italian decision in the European context, 682-684
 - legal practice, 688-689
 - private international law perspective, 681-682
- E
 - E.A. Ronaasen and Son v. Arcos Ltd* case, 621
 - E-Commerce Directive 2000/31/EC
 - on digital platforms, 904-905
 - on types of providers, 905-906
 - Uber-Judgment of the CJUE, 907-908
 - EE Caledonia Ltd v. Orbit Valve Co Europe*, 10
 - Electrical Workers v. Foust*, 693
 - Enforcement of foreign decisions, punitive damages, 661-667
 - current admissibility in Italy, 667
 - situation in Italy, 661-663
 - tasks of civil liability and, 663-664
 - United Sections of Italian Supreme Court, 664-667
 - England, law on excuses for non-performance, 796-797
 - Ensuring data protection, private law contract monitoring, 635-659
 - current data protection
 - private law instruments, 646-648
 - public law first, 644-645
 - data drives modern society, 636-637
 - data protection practices, 640-644
 - discussion, 657-659

- GDPR, 637-640
- sport trackers app
 - appropriate business model, 654-655
 - reciprocity and transparency, 656-657
- strengthening data protection rights
 - as part of contract law, 648-650
 - software tools and governance, 650-654
- Escola v. Coca-Cola Bottling Co.*, 127
- Estin v. Estin*, 565-566
- European Commission
 - on digital platforms
 - contractual role, 908-909
 - liability assessment, 909-910
- European contract law
 - and Charter of fundamental rights, 581-586
 - rules and principles in, 151-156
 - Adar and Sirena*, 152
 - Cauffman*, 153-154
 - Gómez Ligüerre, 155-156
 - Navarretta*, 155
 - Patti*, 154-155
 - Poillot*, 152-153
 - Reich*, 153
 - Rutgers and Sirena*, 151-152
 - Whittaker*, 154
- European Court of Justice (ECJ), 141-142
- European patent law, 99-100
- European products liability, 119-140
 - burden of proof, 126-139
 - the case, 123-126
 - consumer protection and full harmonization, 133-139
 - judgment of 21 June 2017, 126-131
 - judgment of 21 June 2017 addition, 131-133
 - synopsis of law, 121-122
- European Union law
 - approach to embryo, 432-434, 439-441
 - Directive 98/44/EC and, 434-437
 - of Human Rights, 437-439
 - embryo's status, 429-432
- F
- Farley v. Skinner*, 530
- Fitness check of EU consumer law, Conference Report, 703-705
 - participants view, 704-705
 - quality of research, 703-704
- Foreign decisions, punitive damages
 - civil liability, Astreintes, 663-664
 - current admissibility of Italy, 667
 - situation in Italy, 661-663
 - united sections of Italian Supreme Court, 664-667
- France
 - law on excuses for non-performance, 795
- French perspective, punitive damages, 668-673
 - civil penalties in French law, 671-673
 - 'natural' environment, 669-671
- G
- GAT v. LuK*, 102
- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)
 - concept, 750
 - on controller identification, 829-832
 - privacy-by-design requirements, 840-843
- General Personality Rights v. Specific Personality Rights, 37-41
- Germany
 - law on excuses for non-performance, 794-795
 - status of digital platform, 910-911
- Glebosky v. Fimez*, 674-676
- Goodisson v. Nunn*, 616
- Greenman v. Yuba Power Products, Inc.*, 127
- H
- Hamilton Jones v. David & Snape (a firm)*, 527
- Hobbs v. London and South Western Rly Co.*, 533

I

Internet Broadcasting Corporation Ltd v. MAR LLC (t/a MARHedge), 12

Interpretation of contracts and smart contracts automated tools, 783
blockchain technology
legal agreement analogue, 776-779 computer codes, use of, 781-782 traditional language, use of, 779-780
IoT (Internet of things), 711-712

J

Jamieson v. Watt's, 278-279

Judicial cooperation, 333-340
bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings, 335-340
pre-trial discovery orders, 334-335
Jurisdiction clauses, international premarital agreements, 537-577 in contemplation of divorce, USA and Europe post-crisis scrutiny, 553-556 pre-crisis scrutiny, 548-553 state law as substantive regulation, 541-548 party autonomy in family matters, 538-541 questions of jurisdiction characterization of, 558-560 rules on jurisdiction, 564-577
state rules v. uniform rules, 556-558
rules choice of forum agreements, 573-577 divisible divorced versus unitary divorce, 568-573 ex parte v. inter parte divorce, 564-568

K

Kingston v. Preston, 616-617

Knock-for-knock clauses, 3-29 agreements, 7-8
assessment and, 27-29
English law liability limitations affecting contract validity, 15-17

English decisions, 17-18
general principle, 8-9
as matters of contract interpretation, 9-15 Nordic law liability limitations criteria of assessment of validity, 20-26
freedom of contract, 18-20
Knock-for-knock principle, 4-5

L

Law of Contract choice, 445-448
Law of excuses
attributability of causes, 800-802 cause for non-performance, 798-800 limits of smart contracts, 803-804 for non-performance, debtor obligation, 792-794 specific categories, 802-803
Legal qualification of embryo, European multilevel protection, 421-443
Directive 98/44/EC and ECJ, 434-437 domestic approach, 441-443
embryo's status, European systems, 429-432 embryo's status under Italian law, 423-425 legal qualification of, 428-429
position of Courts, 425-428
European union approach, 432-434 human rights, 437-441
principal acts and decisions, 422-423
Les restitutions consécutives à l'annulation du contrat illicite, 265-271
Liability exclusions and limitation,
English law
English decisions, knock-for-knock, 17-18 and general principles, 8-9 issues affecting contract validity breach of statutory duty, 15 public policy, 15-17

- matters of contract interpretation
 - negligence, 9-11
 - wilful Misconduct, 11-15
- Liability limitations, Nordic law
 - freedom of contract 18-20
 - validity of, 20-26
 - commercial contracts between professional parties, 20-21
 - exception, 24-25
 - importance of insurance, 23
 - imputation, 21-22
 - predictability, 24
 - standard contract conditions, 22-23
 - wilful misconduct, 25-26
- Liu Xiang v. Life Style Newspaper*, 46
- M
- Maritime contracts, 5
- Mortgage credit directive in Europe, 717-718
- N
- New European patent landscape, 97-117
 - the CJEU, 109-111
 - EPC patent protection, 100-103
 - European Legal Order, 113-116
 - European patent law, 99-100
 - national courts, 111-113
 - UPC and unitary patent
 - challenges and expected entry into force, 106-109
 - European patents without unitary effect, 105-106
 - European patent with unitary effect, 103-104
 - unified patent court, 104-105
- Non-pecuniary loss, breach of contract, 515-535
 - classification of cases
 - contracts aimed at promisee, 526-531
 - incidental result, 531-535
 - concept of, 516-517
 - defensibility of compensation
 - assumption of risk, 523
 - fears of floodgates, 525
 - foreseeability, 523
 - higher costs of contracting, 524-525
 - problems of proof, 521-522
 - risk of excessive awards, 524
 - rights, duties, and wrongs, 517-521
- O
- Offshore contracts, 4
- P
- Package Travel Directive, 916-919
- Parrillo v. Italia*, 438
- Patel v. Mirza*
 - Belgian perspective, 245-253
 - restitution under 'Illegal' contract, 246-251
 - second maxim, 251-253
 - Italian law, 255-263
 - before court, 256-257
 - good morals decline, 259-261
 - in pari causa turpitudine* Rule, 257-259
 - Scots law perspective, 273-281
 - facts and, 274-277
 - unjustified enrichment, 277-280
- Patent law, European, 99-100
- Perera v. Vandiyar*, 534
- Perry v. Sidney Phillips & Son*, 534
- Personality rights protection in China, 31-55
 - attributes of the human, 32-34
 - Chinese Case Law, 45-49
 - Chinese Civil Code, 42-45
 - general personality rights v. specific personality rights*, 37-41
 - legislative model issues, 55
 - violation of personality rights remedies, 49-55
 - working definition and current legislative, 34-37
- Petroleo Brasileiro SA v. ENE Kos 1 Limited*, 693
- Photo Production Ltd v. Securicor Transport Ltd*, 12

- Policy argument. See also Politics and aesthetics in non-American private law American model for private law
 as an Individualist/Altruist Continuum, 604-606
 choosing rules, 606-610
 common policy analytic, 612-615 contractual performance, jurisdictions and legal questions disparate policies on performance interruption, 615-624 described, 598-604
 transnationalizing American Model, 610-611
 transnational repertoire of, 625-629
 Politics and aesthetics in non-American private law, 597-634
 American model, 610-612 conditions/warranties, 612-615
 contractual performance disparate policies, 615-624
 transnational repertoire of, 625-629
 interruption at all, 616-618
 interruption for distinct contracts, 622-624
 Laissez-faire legal approaches, 598-604 model for study of argument choosing rules through policy argument, 606-610
 individualist/altruist continuum
 rules, 604-606
 require proportionality in response, 621-622 require seriousness of breach, 618-621
Primus v. Roche, 102
 Principle of comity in English private international law, 311-340 determination of jurisdiction acts of foreign states, 320-323 foreign judicial process, 323-331 history of comity, 313-314
 international treaties
 interpretation of, 319
 statutory interpretation, 316-318
 judicial cooperation
 bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings, 335-340
 pre-trial discovery orders, 334-335 principle of comity, 314-316 recognition of foreign judgments, 331-333
 Private law and internal market, 579-580
 Product liability, pharmaceuticals act, 69-74 case law, 74
 causation, 72-73
 grounds of liability, 70-71
 other rules, 73-74
 right of disclosure, 72
 Proof of causation in Tort Law, 713-715
Property law perspectives III, 587-591 of papers, 587-590
 scope and merit, 590-591
 Punitive damages
 Belgian perspective, 674-680
 Axo v. Nosa, 676
 consequences, 677-680
 traditional antipathy, 674-676
 civil liability, 663-664
 Dutch private international law perspective, 681-682 foreign decisions, 661-667
 current admissibility in Italy, 667
 Italian Supreme Court of Cassation 5 July 2017, 664-667
 situation in Italy, 661-663
 tasks of civil liability, 663-664 French perspective, 668-673
 of civil penalties, 671-673
 in natural environment, 669-671
 Italy, 661-663
 current admissibility, 667
 Supreme Court of Cassation 5 July 2017, 664-667
 Spanish legal system, 697-702 courts of foreign law, 698-700
 foreign judgments, 700-701
 and the liability system, 697-698
 private international law, 698-701

Q

Quelles réponses à la décadence des actions possessoires?, 197-226

R

Radmacher v. Granatino, 547

Restitution of performance under illegal contract, Belgian perspective, 245-254

Nemo Auditur Turpitudinem Suam Allegans, 251-253

Pari Causa Turpitudinis Cessat Repetitio, 'Illegal' Contract, 246-251

Restitution under illegal contract, Scots Law perspective, 273-281 facts, 274-277

illegality and unjustified enrichment, 277-280

in Scotland, 280-281

Role of policy sources, 631-634

in England, 633-634

in English Canada, 634

in France, 631-632

in Quebec, 632-633

Rubin v. Eurofinance SA, 321

Ruxley Electronics and Construction Ltd v. Forsyth, 529

S

Schockschaden und

Hinterbliebenengeld nach

deutschem Recht und

Angehörigenschmerzensgeld nach türkischem Recht, 341-369

Self-help remedies

applicability of contract law

Artificial Intelligence (AI) regulations, 810-811

extrinsic enforcement, 811-813

inherent flexibility and malleability., 813-814

continuing need for contract law proactive measures, 818-819

reactive measures, 819-823

self-terminating software or share-ware, 816-818

Smart contracts

B2C environment.

regulatory strategy, 899-901

benefits and threats, 754-755

blockchain regulations, 754-755 characteristics, 790-792

consumer protection provisions, 892-899

passenger rights, 896-897

current legal framework, 737-740

definition, 756

force majeure concept, 787-804, 882, 891

good faith concepts, 779-780, 785, 810, 824, 891-892

key notions, definitions

blockchain, 732-734

decentralized smart contracts, 734-737

legal questions

General Data Protection

Regulation (GDPR), 750

intellectual property laws, 743-744 national agreement, jurisdiction issues, 747-749

probative value, 749-750

real vs virtual worlds, 742-743

self-help measures, 745-746

property right issues, 873-876

security right issues, 876-877

strength and weakness, 888-891

use of new technologies, 740-742

Smit International (Deutschland)

GmbH v. Josef Mobius

Baugesellschaft & Co, 17

Spanish legal system, punitive damages, 697-702

and the liability system, 697-698

private international law

- application by Spanish courts, 698-700
 - foreign judgments, 700-701
- State Rules v. Uniform Rules, 556-558
- Steiner v. Steiner*, 567
- Suisse Atlantique* case, 13-14
- T
- Tort law in European Union, 287-292
- Transocean Drilling UK Ltd v. Providence Resources PLC* case, 14
- Trusted Execution Environments (TEE), 938
- U
- UK Consumer Rights Act 2015, 762, 769-770
- Unfair Terms Directive, 762
- Unitary patent and the UPC, 103-109
 - European patents without unitary effect, 105-106
 - European patent with unitary effect, 103-104
 - recent challenges and expected entry into force, 106-109
 - unified patent court, 104-105
- V
- Vaccination, European legal systems, 58-60
- Vertical v. horizontal approaches to monitoring, 180-182
- W
- Wang Sulan v. Tu Men & Zhu Dongli*, 48
- Wilkes v. Depuy International*, 92
- Y
- Yao Ming v. Hubei Yunhe Shark Sportswear Co.*, 47
- Young Property Lawyers Forum (YPLF, 2018), 955-957