

2004 INDEX

- Article 230(4) TEC
 - debate on future of standing under 43-56
 - annulment of Community Acts initiated by private applicants 44-47
 - articles on Court of Justice and High Court 53
 - Discussion Circle I 'Court of Justice' 51-53
 - final report 52-53
 - report on meeting on 2 March 2003, 52
 - working document I 51-52
 - Draft Constitution Volume II 54
 - oral presentation by President of Court of First Instance 49-50
 - oral presentation by President of European Court of Justice 50-51
 - Praesidium 53-56
 - recent developments 47-48
 - working document 21 48-49
 - Working Group II
 - 'Incorporation of Charter/ Accession to ECHR' 48-51
- BSE
 - precautionary principle in EC law, and 374-376
- Central and Eastern Europe
 - refashioning rights in. see Refashioning rights in Central and Eastern Europe
- Charitable trusts
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 614
- Civil servants
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 613-614
- Confederation of British Industry (CBI)
 - Charter of Fundamental Rights of the Union, on 76-77
- Constitution for European Union 57-84
 - acceding to ECHR 79-81
 - fundamental rights 79
 - Human Rights Act, and 79-80
 - intergovernmentalism 81
 - Convention 57-61
 - d'Estaing Convention, and 57
 - effective remedies 81-82

- English Constitutionalism and Constitution for Europe 61-64
 - abolition of office of Lord Chancellor 61-62
 - Art I-10 EUC/T, and 64
 - Human Rights Act 1998, and 62
 - Parliamentary sovereignty 63
 - sovereignty of Community law 63
 - Standing Committee of House of Commons on the Convention 64
 - Stuart, Gisela, on 65
- European 'super state', and 60-61
- Foreign Affairs Council 60
- 'Freedom, Security and Justice' 59
- future status of Charter 74-79
 - Charter influence in English law 75-76
 - Confederation of British Industry, on 76-77
 - Court of Human Rights, and 76
 - 'horizontal clauses' 77-78
 - importance of 74
 - provisions outside Union's competence 75
 - vague notion of principles 78
- General and Legislative Affairs Council 60
- increase in transparency 58
- National Parliaments (NPs) 72-74
 - early warning system 73-74
 - Laeken Council on 72-73
 - role of 74
 - thresholds 73
- new legislative framework 70-72
 - delegated regulations 70
 - 'European law', definitions 70
 - flexibility clause 71-72
 - House of Lords Select Committee 70
 - implementing measures 70, 71
 - safeguards 72
 - powers 58
 - public forum 59
- Qualified Majority Voting (QMV) 61
- UK Government reaction 66-69
 - 'A Constitutional Treaty for the EU', white paper 69
 - common foreign and security policy 68-69
 - 'dual citizenship' 67
 - 'federal', use of word 67-68
 - government representative on the Convention 66
 - incorporation of Charter of Fundamental Rights 67
 - reception of aims of Convention 66-67
- Constitutional changes in Czech Republic 3-18
 - case law of Constitutional Court in 2000-2002, and 3-18
 - Constitutional Court, importance of 18
 - Czech National Bank, appointment of board 11-13
 - challenges before Constitutional Court 12
 - conflict over 13
 - Czech National Bank Act, amendments 12-13
 - regulation in constitution 11
 - 'European' Constitutional Article 4-8
 - Constitutional Act on EU referendum 7-8
 - international treaties 5-6
 - introductory clause 5
 - ordinary courts 7
 - powers of Constitutional Court 6-7

- powers of Parliament 6
 - transfer of powers to international institution 6
- Judiciary Act and creation of Supreme Administrative Court 14-15
 - challenge by President 15
 - more 'friendly' approach 14
- Lustration Act 15-16
 - challenged by Deputies 16
 - Communist regime, and 15
 - res judicata 16
- National Security Authority, limits of discretion of 16-17
 - establishment of 16
 - powers of 17
- reform of election system to assembly of deputies of Parliament 8-11
 - 'agreement on opposition' 8-9
 - 'quasi-coalition' 8
 - review of Electoral Act 9-10
- Constitutional process and reform in EU 653-675
 - 'constitutional moment' 653
 - Convention on Future of Europe 660-669
 - centralization of initiative to Praesidium and Secretariat in closing stages 668-669
 - decision to press for constitutional treaty 661-663
 - internal and external discourse about institutions 664-668
 - sketching constitutional architecture through preliminary draft constitutional treaty 664
 - viable modus operandi through establishment of working groups 660-661
 - inter-governmental conference 670-673
 - Brussels European Council 672-673
 - IGC deliberations 670-672
 - reflections on constitutional reform 673-675
 - shaping of reform agenda 654-660
 - Commission 657-659
 - Council and European Council 655-657
 - European Parliament 659-660
- Constitutional rights
 - relationship with EU law, 541-544.
see also Finland
- Corsica 481-501
 - conseil regional 484
 - creation of Assembly in 1982, 483-487
 - devolution, and 481-501
 - hopes of increased powers limited in 2002, 492-495
 - instability 486
 - institutional reform under new constitutional provisions rejected in 2003, 497-501
 - Jacobin ideology, and 482-483
 - la collectivite territoriale de Corse 487-492
 - land ownership 482
 - language 495-497
 - prefet de region 485
- Court of First Instance
 - actions against the EC 588-592
 - fundamental rights 597-599
 - precautionary principle 594-597
 - statistics for 2002-2003, 583-584
 - supranational solidarity 599-601

- Czech Republic
 Constitutional changes in. see
 Constitutional changes in Czech Republic
- d’Estaing Convention, 57. see also
 Constitution for European Union
- EC competence 592-594
 sex discrimination, and 594
 tobacco, rules of manufacture, presentation and sale of 592-594
- Employment strategy, European soft harmonisation, and. see Soft harmonisation: the ‘open method of coordination’
- England
 English Constitutionalism and Constitution for Europe. see
 Constitution for European Union
 European public law, and 209-219
 Department of Constitutional
 Affairs 212-214
 English law and European
 Community law 215-219
 English regions 214
 House of Lords, 209-211. see also House of Lords
 Supreme Court 212-214
 UK Government’s proposals for English regional devolution. see UK
 Government’s proposals for English regional devolution
- EU law
 relationship with constitutional rights. see Finland
- EU membership
 Finnish constitutional law, and. see
 Finland
- European Convention
 Article 230(4) TEC. see Article
 230(4) TEC
- European Council
 Finland, and 549
- European Court of Human Rights
 case law July 2002-September 2003, 423-460
 applicability to disputes
 concerning tax penalties 428-430
 Article 3: conditions of detention 426-427
 Article 5: burden of proof in detention of mentally ill 427-428
 Article 6(3)(d): cross
 examination 436-438
 Article 6: access to court and
 Parliamentary immunity 430-
 432
 Article 6: fair trial: impartial tribunal 432-433
 Article 6: presumption of innocence 435-436
 Article 8: environmental pollution 438-440
 Article 8: private life and access to records 441-443
 Article 8/12: private and family life of transsexuals 446-449
 Article 8/ Article 14: private life: differential treatment of homosexuals 441
 Article 10: freedom of expression and national security
 453-454
 Article 10: freedom of expression and positive
 obligations 451-452

- Article 10: freedom of expression and protection of journalistic sources 449-451
- Article 11: freedom of association/ assembly and 'subversive' organisations 454-457
- Article 11: trade union rights 457-458
- Article 37: striking out of applications 458-460
- fair trial: self-incrimination 434-435
- private life and video surveillance 443-445
- statistics 423-425
- European Court of Justice
 - actions against the EC 588-592
 - fundamental rights 597-599
 - jurisdiction of 584-586
 - court or tribunal, definition 585-586
 - judicial remedy, interpretation 584-585
 - powers of Italian Antitrust Authority 623-634
 - Autorita Garante's power of disapplying national law 629-631
 - competition rules and Member States' obligation 628-629
 - effect of national provisions on autonomous business conduct of undertakings 624-625
 - guidelines from ECJ to referring court 633-634
 - imposition of penalties by Autorita Garante for past and future conduct of undertakings 631-633
 - influence of EC law and disapplication of conflicting national provisions 624-625
 - primacy of EC law and national authorities 626-627
 - relevance of Article 10 and 81 EC Treaty 625-626
 - precautionary principle 594-597
 - role in process of European integration 107-110
 - statistics for 2002-2003, 582-583
 - supranational solidarity 599-601
- European Digital Broadcasting 135-160
 - competitive assessment 147-152
 - barriers to entry 149-150
 - dominance in pay-TV market 149-149
 - dynamic analysis 151-152
 - efficiency gains 151
 - relevant markets 148
 - switching costs 150-151
 - technological barriers 150
 - competition front 153-156
 - acquiescent national authorities 155
 - European approach 154
 - free-to-air and pay-TV as single market 155-156
 - relevant markets in broadcasting sector 153-155
 - confrontation in marketplace 135-136
 - development in Spain 136-137
 - 'Digital War' 136
 - exclusive content rights 140-141
 - merger agreement 146-147
 - overview 137-140
 - advent of digitalisation 137-138
 - content provision 138
 - content and service packaging 138

- dominant operators 137
 - growth in DTV market 139
 - provision of access services 138-139
 - transmission 138
- proprietary technologies 141
- public intervention in 141-152
 - compatibility with Community law 146
 - European regulation 143-144
 - logistics 145-146
 - national regulation 144-145
 - parties and their plans 142-143
 - regulatory strategies 143-146
- regulatory front 157-159
- European integration
 - Italian jurisprudence 1964-1973, 107-133
 - national legal communities 107-112
- European Union
 - constitution for. see Constitution for European Union
 - constitutional process and reform in. see Constitutional process and reform in EU
 - law
 - protection against regulations in. see Protection against regulations in EU law
- Finland
 - Administrative Procedure Act 461-468
 - background to reform 463-464
 - main amendments 464-467
 - reasons for 461-463
 - structure 464-467
 - constitutional adjustments necessitated by ratification of constituent treaties of EU 536-540
 - accession to EU, required by 536-538
 - Amsterdam Treaty, required by 538
 - interpretation of sovereignty 539-540
 - Nice Treaty, required by 538
 - constitutional conditions for integration 540-546
 - constitutional context of EU membership 533-536
 - relationship between Finnish law and international law 534-536
 - two changes in constitutional matrix of EU membership since 1995, 533-534
 - constitutional rights in domestic practice pertaining to EU affairs 544-546
 - courts
 - dialogue with ECJ 561-563
 - effects of EU membership 557-563
 - judicial empowerment 558-559
 - recognition of constitutional qualities of EU law 559-561
 - effects of EU membership on domestic separation of powers 546-552
 - EU Committees of Parliament 555
 - European Council, and 549
 - Finnish Ombudsman 341-345
 - handling of EU affairs by government 552-554
 - impact of EU membership on constitutional law 531-564
 - relation between constitutional rights and EU law 541-544
 - sovereignty as limit to integration 540-541

- importance of EU affairs in political life 556
- judiciary
 - effects of EU membership 557-563
- parliamentary focus of authority in EU affairs 548
- participation of parliament in EU affairs 554-557
- President, powers of 547
- Prime Minister
 - role in international affairs 551-552
- role of government in international affairs 551-552
- separation of powers 546-552
- trend towards parliamentary system of government 547-548
- turbulence in constitutional law 563-564
- First European Ombudsman 333-367
 - background 334-337
 - as alternative to court proceedings 337
 - description of working environment 334
 - four different functions 336-337
 - link to notion of European citizenship 334-335
 - primary duties 336
 - right to apply to Ombudsman 335-336
 - defining concept of 333
 - disputed notion of
 - maladministration 345-348
 - maladministration, definition 345-346
 - diversity of Ombudsman traditions 337-340
 - difficulty challenging actions 339-340
 - national traditions 337-338
 - undefined role 338
 - variety of expectations 339
- EO and administrative law 359-364
 - capacity of EO to develop soft law 362-363
 - clearer safeguards, need to establish 360
 - legal rules, need for 361-362
 - legitimacy argument 363-364
 - main focus of EO 361
- Finnish paradigm 341-345
 - differences between Finland and EU 344-345
 - duties of Finnish Ombudsman 341
 - Finnish Constitution, and 341-342
 - powers of Finnish Ombudsman 343-344
 - role of Finnish Ombudsman 342-343
- role and function of EO 348-359
 - Article 226 procedure 353-355
 - Code on Good Administrative Behaviour, proposal for 349-350
 - Commission measures 348
 - European governance 356-359
 - questions of procedure 349
 - transparency 350-353
- France
 - devolution. see Corsica
- Fundamental rights 597-599
 - remedies for infringements. see Remedies for infringements of fundamental rights
 - sovereignty and legal pluralism, and 107-133

German constitutional law cases 221-236

constitutionality of Life Partnership Act 229-232

formal 230-231

substantive 231-232

constitutionality of NATO's new strategic concept 221-224

approval to Treaty of Washington as definition of integration measures 224

history 221

not an amendment to Treaty of Washington 222-223

parliamentary approval not required 223-224

dispensation for 'schechitah' to moslem butchers 233-236

animal protection, and 234

Animal Protection Act 234-235

freedom of action 233-234

participation in operations of NATO's AWACS in Turkey 224-226

decisive criterion for qualification of 226

temporary injunction against 225

prohibition to produce television-recordings of trials 227-228

Article 169, and 227-228

'duty' of legislative government 228

Germany

Constitutional law cases, 221-236.

see also German constitutional law cases

Great Britain. see also England; Wales
Constitution for European Union,
and. see Constitution for European Union

Homosexuality

German Life Partnership Act 229-232

House of Lords 209-211

appointment of members 210

composition of reformed 211

House of Commons Public

Administration Select Committee
210-211

recommendations 210

reforming 209-210

Human rights

parliamentary protection 635-651

ability 645-651

common law fundamental rights 641-642

criteria for action 642-643

effect of rights on legal or legislative sovereignty 644

enforceable Community rights
640-641

Human Rights Act 1998, 641

international obligations 639

international treaties 642

legislation and rights 645-648

obligation to inform 643

obligations 639-640

Parliament's freedom to legislate 643-644

Queen, role of 638

remedying individual violations of human rights 650-651

responsibility of parliament
636-645

rights in respect of service in Community 649-650

- rights and scrutiny of government policy 648-649
- sovereignty 637
- Human Rights Act 1998
 - comparative perspectives on constitutional law 161-177
 - German Federal Constitutional
Court 162-163
 - incorporation into UK law 161
 - judicial reasoning in Federal Constitutional Court 173-176
 - nature of HRA 164-167
 - other Commonwealth countries
162
 - rights and politics 168-173
 - US Supreme Court 163
 - English constitutionalism, and 62
- Human Rights Investigation
Commission
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 610
- Islam
 - butchers 233-236
- Italian jurisprudence
 - European integration, and 107-133
- Italy
 - devolution and the Constitution 33-41
 - clarifications needed 34
 - competencies for regions 34-35
 - constitutional bill No.C3561 33
 - constitutional dimension 38-39
 - 'cut-out' technique 35-36
 - degree of autonomy 35
 - emergence of federalism 40
 - federalist prospective 38-39
 - health service 36
 - liberalisation 40
 - municipal autonomy 40
 - objective of reform 34
 - organisation of schools and local police 37-38
 - powers of Italian Antitrust
Authority. see European Court of Justice
- Jacobs, Advocate General Francis
 - pleading for enhanced judicial protection, on 291-293
- Legal pluralism
 - sovereignty and fundamental rights,
and 107-133
- National courts
 - maximising the effectiveness of judicial protection 586-588
 - decisions of national courts
which infringe Community law
586-587
 - obligation to abide by
Community law 587-588
- National legal communities
 - European integration 107-112
- NATO, 221-224. see also German
constitutional law cases
- Ombudsman
 - European, first. see First European Ombudsman
- Pfizer. see Precautionary principle in EC
law
- Political parties
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 613

- Population registers
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 617
- Portugal
 - 2003 Competition law reform in 19-32
 - adoption into law 20
 - Competition Authority, creation of 19
 - effective system of enforcement, importance of 20
 - importance of 19
 - control of concentration between undertakings 26-27
 - cooperation between Competition Authority and Sectoral Authorities 30-31
 - 'dominant position' and abuse of economic dependence 25-26
 - new approach concerning notion of 25-26
 - New Competition Act 23-25
 - influence of EC Competition law 24
 - scope of application of 25
 - subsidiary application of Code of Administrative Procedure 24-25
 - New Competition Authority 20-23
 - clarification of competition law 23
 - consolidation of 'competition culture' 21-22
 - description of procedures undertaken by 31
 - handling of procedures 22
 - reasons for creation of 20
 - statute of independence 21
 - procedural provisions 29-30
 - 30% market threshold 29
 - new timing for mandatory notifications of concentration 30
 - obligation of payment of fee 29
 - substantive provisions 27-28
 - competition assessment of concentrations 27-28
 - criteria for prohibiting concentrations 28
 - 'full function joint venture' 27
- Precautionary principle in EC law 369-406
 - Court of First Instance, and 594-597
 - European Court of Justice, and 594-597
 - life after Pfizer 399-405
 - precautionary principle as general principle of EC law 369-378
 - BSE cases 374-376
 - earlier case-law of Community courts 373-374
 - other cases before Pfizer 376-378
 - precautionary principle in EC law 371-373
 - prehistory of precaution 369-370
 - principle at international level 370-371
 - precautionary principle in Pfizer 378-399
 - apportionment of burden of proof 380-382
 - defining political objectives 384-386
 - importance of respect of procedural requirements 393-394
 - political committees 391-392
 - principle of proportionality 396-399
 - rejection of purely hypothetical approach 382-383
 - risk assessment 383
 - risk and hazard 382-383

- risk management 383
 - risk to be assessed 380
 - role of scientific committees 389-391
 - scientific assessment of risks 386-388
 - scientific uncertainty in commission communication on 378-379
 - scientific uncertainty in Pfizer judgment 379
 - scope of judicial review 395-396
- Press
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 611
- Protection against regulations in EU law 285-303
 - assessment and future perspectives 297-303
 - fundamental reform remains with legislator 297-298
 - fundamental rights complaint, need for 301-303
 - reform of provisions on judicial protection of EC-Treaty 298-301
 - core points of ECJ judgment in case UPA 294-267
 - facts and head-notes of ECJ decision of 25 July 2002, 286-287
 - legal policy behind decision 287-293
 - CFI judgment on ban of tobacco advertising 293-294
 - impulses for change of Plaumann jurisdiction by CFI judgment of 3 May 2002 in case Jeco-Quere 290-291
 - opinion of Advocate General Francis Jacobs in UPA 291-293
 - pleading for enhanced judicial protection 291-293
 - restrictive approach of jurisdiction 288-290
 - rule of law encounters 285-286
- Public service broadcasting 503-530
 - access to content otherwise unavailable 528
 - arguments for continued support 527
 - competition 506
 - development 506-507
 - discriminatory measures under Article 46 EC 509-512
 - diversity 512
 - pluralism 512
 - proportionality test 509-510
 - system of prior authorisation 511
 - EU legislation 508-509
 - European public law, and 528
 - expansion of services 507
 - freedom to provide broadcasting, and 508-520
 - importance of 505-506
 - increasing liberalisation, and 530
 - mission 505
 - promotion
 - European controls 503-530
 - reasons for 505-508
 - regulation
 - European controls 503-530
 - role of mass media, and 526-527
 - specificity of public service mandate 529
 - state aids 520-526
 - enhancement of public service functions, and 525
 - key issues 524
 - 'overcompensation' 526
 - state financing 520-526

- tax breaks 522-523
 - support for 503
- Television Without Frontiers
- directive 512-520
 - advertising content 517
 - harmonisation provisions 518
 - non-discriminatory measures 512-515
 - proportionality 520
 - proportionality test 514-515
 - recent case law 515-516
 - restrictions under 515-520
 - 'secondary controls' 519
- tradition of 504
- Radio
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 615
- Refashioning rights in Central and Eastern Europe
 - implications for region's Roma 85-106
 - Advisory Committee 98-99
 - burning of Roma village in Romania 101
 - communist policies towards 89
 - compliance with admission criteria 95-96
 - Constitutional Courts 91
 - Council of Europe's Framework Convention 96-97
 - Council of Europe's Parliamentary Assembly, on 92-93
 - curtailment of social and economic rights 92
 - denial of access to public services 87-88
 - enforcement of rights 91
 - failure of local criminal justice systems 101
 - human rights revolution 94-95
 - Human Rights Watch 2002
 - World Report 102
 - liberal, pluralist ideology 97
 - living conditions 86-87
 - multiple human rights challenges 85
 - 'new' rights for 'old' in Central and Eastern Europe 89-94
 - political participation for Roma 93-94
 - post-Communist constitutions 90
 - proper functions of the state 89-90
 - recognition of minority rights 94-100
 - schooling, and 88
 - transition from Communism 86-88
 - UN Convention against torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment 103
 - unemployment levels 87
 - violence against Roma 100-104
 - violence towards 86
- Remedies for infringements of fundamental rights 261-284
 - compensation for breaches of fundamental rights in private relations 276-283
 - contract law, and 281-283
 - functions of tort law 276
 - harm, definition 277
 - proportionality principle 279-280
 - satisfaction, aim of 276-277
 - traditional tort law rules 278
 - courts, remedies and procedures 262-266

- Charter of Fundamental Rights 263
- Community court's jurisdiction 264-265
 - national level 262-263
 - private parties, difficulties 265
 - supranational level 263-266
 - two European supranational systems, merging 265-266
- declarations of rights 261
- growing convergence of remedies 272-275
 - access to court 273-274
 - directive law 275
 - ECJ Case law 274
 - framing effective remedies 274-275
 - impact of ECtHR case law on legal systems of participating states 272-273
- remedy of compensation 266-272
 - breaches by Community institutions 268
 - breaches by private parties 271-272
 - causation 269-270
 - overview 266
 - three conditions for extra-contractual liability 266-267
 - tort liability of the administration 270-271
- Roma
 - Central and Eastern Europe, in refashioning rights for. see Refashioning rights in Central and Eastern Europe
- Sex discrimination
 - EC competence, and 594
- Soft harmonisation: the 'open method of coordination' 305-332
 - critical perspective on 306
 - EU combating unemployment strategy 305
 - European employment strategy and economic governance 306-315
 - Amsterdam Treaty 306
 - benchmarking 312-315
 - change in emphasis 311
 - economic growth, and 308
 - employment strategy six years on 309-312
 - Employment Title, introduction of 307
 - excessive levels of national debt 307-308
 - Lisbon European Council 2000, 308-309
 - peer-review 312-315
 - progress towards employment targets 310
 - soft law 312-315
 - streamlining differing processes of policy coordination 311
- evolution of new forms of governance 316-319
 - comitology 317
 - competency gap 318
 - coordinating policy framework 318-319
 - evolving process 316-317
 - 'joint decision trap' 318
 - social dialogue 317-318
- formalising OMC 330-332
- theorising OMC 319-330
 - OMC as (coercive) policy transfer 326-330
 - OMC as form of 'reflexive harmonisation' 323-326
 - OMC as (voluntary) policy learning 326-330

- reflexive law 320-323
- Sovereignty, legal pluralism and fundamental rights 107-133
 - Acciaierie S. Michele case 115-121
 - counter-limits 120-121
 - pluralism distinguished from dualism 115
 - Costa case 112-114
 - counter-limits doctrine 124-126
 - exegesis of Article 11 of Constitution 112-114
 - Frontim case 121-124
 - dogmatic approach, difficulties of 121-124
- Spain
 - asymmetric federalism, proposals of 477-478
 - constitutional system of territorial autonomies 470-472
 - decentralization alternatives on constitutional system 469-480
 - tendency towards 469-470
 - unique Administration's proposal 478-480
 - development of digital broadcasting in 136-137
 - first developing period of autonomous model 472-474
 - second developing period of autonomous model (1992-1998) 474-477
- State aids
 - public service broadcasting, and. see Public service broadcasting
- Stuart, Gisela
 - European Convention, on 65
- Supranational solidarity 599-601
- Television
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 615
- Terrorism
 - Turkish harmonisation with EU, and 610-611
- Tobacco advertising
 - ban on 293-294, 592-594
- Turkey
 - harmonisation with EU
 - anti-terrorism, law on 610-611
 - assessment 619-621
 - associations, law on 611-613
 - charitable trusts, law on 614
 - Civil code amendments 604
 - civil servants, law on 613-614
 - code of civil procedure amendments 607-609
 - code of criminal procedure amendments 607-609
 - constitutional amendments 603
 - construction and town and country planning, law on 617
 - court of accounts, law on 617
 - duties and competence of police and security forces, law on 615-616
 - fifth harmonisation package 606
 - first harmonisation package 605
 - foreign language teaching and learning, law on 615
 - fourth harmonisation package 606
 - further developments 617-618
 - human rights investigation commission, law on 610
 - judicial register amendments, law on 609

- meetings and demonstrations, law on 614
- National Security Council and Secretariat, law on 616
- penal code amendments 604, 607-609
- political parties, law on 613
- population registers, law on 617
- the press, law on 611
- prevention of payment of bribes to foreign public personnel, law on 610
- radio and television
 - broadcasting, law on 615
- second harmonisation package 605
- seven packages towards 603-621
- seventh harmonisation package 607
- sixth harmonisation package 606-607
- third harmonisation package 605-606
- use of right to petition, law on 610
- operation of NATO AWACS in
 - German constitutional law, and 224-226
- UK Government's proposals for English regional devolution 245-260
 - contrast with continental Europe 246
 - England's regional revolution 247-249
 - driving forces 247
 - Greater London Authority 248
 - Home Nations devolution, and 248
 - Human Rights Act, and 248
 - Regional Assemblies (Preparation) Act 2003, 248-249
 - England's regions 249-250
 - boundaries 249
 - no challenges to existing boundaries 250
 - regional de-concentration 249-250
 - English devolution process 250-253
 - announcement of referenda 252
 - directly elected regional governments 251
 - increased funding and responsibility for Chambers 251
 - most significant elements 250-251
 - 'soundings exercise' 252-253
 - three-stage process 251-252
 - European context 259-260
 - financing the regions 258
 - Council tax 258
 - institutions of English devolution 253-254
 - Assembly, election of 253-254
 - Assembly, size of 254
 - regional functions 254-257
 - Assemblies, responsibilities of 254
 - consultation with QUANGOs 256
 - delivery of regional strategies 257
 - economic development 255
 - no general competence 255
 - opponents of reform 257
 - planning 256-257
 - Regional Development Agencies funding 255
 - shift towards decentralised governance 246-247
 - wider context 246

‘Your Region, Your Choice’, white paper 245

Wales

Welsh devolution settlement,
reviewing 237-244

- Assembly Review of Procedure 238-239
- contrast with Scottish Constitutional Convention 237
- Government’s Devolution Guidance Note 240
- Government’s view on Rawlings principles 242
- lack of consistency in legislation affecting Wales 240-241
- lack of discussion 237-238
- powers of the Assembly 238-240
- proposals for new powers 239-240
- Richard Commission 243-244
- suggestions for improving legislation affecting Wales 241
- Welsh Affairs Select Committee of House of Commons review 241-242
- Westminster legislation affecting Wales 240-243

Washington Treaty

German constitutional law cases, and 221-224