

Annual Index

Susan Bisom-Rapp	Fearing Minefields but Finding Goldfields: Teaching International and Comparative Workplace Law in China or Anywhere Else	33
Rolf Birk and Nils Maack	The Council of Europe and Employee Involvement in Private Enterprises	123
William Bromwich	Blood, Toil, Tears and Sweat? Achieving Proficiency in Academic Writing	59
Catharina Calleman	Family Ties in Swedish Employment Law	431
Tayo Fashoyin	Governance and the Labour Market: Bipartite and Tripartite Dialogue in South Africa	137
Alice Le Flanchec and Jacques Rojot	The 'Open Door' Policy at IBM France: An Old-established Voice Procedure that is still in Use	411
Ruben J. Garcia	Teaching Problem-Solving and Preventive Law Skills through International Labor and Employment Law	15
Rafael Gely	Workplace Songs: Developing a Framework for Research and Teaching	49
Naj Ghosheh	Protecting the Housekeeper: Legal Agreements Applicable to International Migrant Domestic Workers	301
Timothy P. Glynn	A Global Approach to the Study of Workplace Law: Looking Across (Real) National Borders To Move Beyond (Artificial) Substantive Ones	3
Rick Glofcheski and Ho Yan Leung	Job Security and Entitlements within Hong Kong's Maternity Protection Legislation	327
Jan Heinsius	The European Directive on Collective Dismissals and its Implementation Deficits. Six ECJ Judgments as a Potential Incentive for Amending the Directive.	261
Victoria Howes	The Law of Harassment in the UK: A Growing Concern	191
Md. Saiful Karim	Violation of Labour Rights in the Shipbreaking Yards of Bangladesh: Legal Norms and Reality	379
Katarzyna Lasak	Health and Safety in the European Social Charter	109
Katherine C. Naff and Ockert Dupper	Footprints Through the Courts: Comparing Judicial Responses to Affirmative Action Litigation in South Africa and the United States	157

'Annual Index'. The International Journal of Comparative Labour Law and Industrial Relations 25, no. 4 (2009): 449–450.

© 2009 Kluwer Law International BV, The Netherlands

Wolfgang Ochel	The Political Economy of Two-tier Reforms of Employment Protection in Europe	237
Taco van Peijpe	Collective labour law after Viking , Laval , Rüffert , and Commission v. Luxembourg	81
Evelyne Léonard and Emmanuelle Perin	Lifelong Learning and Social Partnership: A Comparative Overview of 12 European Countries	283
Kevin Purse and Robert Guthrie	Business Regulation and Workers' Compensation: A National Framework for Workers' Compensation in Australia?	395
Jafar Suryomenggolo	Labour Law without 'Rights' in Indonesia: The Making of Undang Undang Kerdja 1948	357
Marc De Vos	European Flexicurity and Globalization: a Critical Perspective	209
Michael Akomaye Yanou	Are the Rules for the Registration of Trade Unions in Cameroon Compatible with the ILO's Concept of Freedom of Association?	349
Michael J. Zimmer	Two Halves of a Whole: Teaching International and Comparative Employment Law	23