

Subject Index

A

Academic freedom and industrial relations
 CIPD Educational Standards, 251 critical social science, 252
 HRM practices, 251
 mission of universities, 253
 prescriptive approaches, 251–252
 professional interest, 250
 scholarship, 252
Acquired Rights Directive of 1977, 67–69
AFT. See American Federation of Teachers
American Federation of Teachers
 (AFT), 98

B

Bentham's utilitarianism, 23

C

Child Labour Law 1990–2010 in 1989, 86–87
 developments, 85
 fundamental rights, 91–92
 individual right, 88–89 labour procedural law, 92–93 legislative ambivalence, 93 legislative trends, democracy, 87–88
 trade unions and collective bargaining Act 19,759, 90

 Act 19,049 and Act 19,069, 89–90
 ILO, 90–91
Citizen Domestic Worker programme, 233–234
Codes of conduct
 CSR agenda, 339
 lawfulness
 competence of multinationals, 347–348
 instrumentum, 346
 self-regulatory arrangements, 347
Servais's definition, 346 structure to ensure compliance chain responsibility 353
 implementation and monitoring, 352
 legal initiatives, 355
 privatised monitoring, 352–353
 self-regulation, 351–352
 spillover effect, 354
 substance/negotium, 349–351
Commission Guideline No. 22, 263–264
Cross-border trade union action in Canadian MNCs
 globalization and international framework agreements (IFAs)
 content of IFAs, 272
 Global Union Federation (GUF),
 273
 1998 ILO Declaration, 272–273
 integration process, 273–274

Quebecor World Inc. (QWI)
 collective bargaining theory and transnational labour negotiation, 282–286
 description, 274
 financial situation, 274
 IFA negotiation, 279–282
 international contacts, 274
 launching the
 JUSTICE@QUEBECOR campaign, 275–277
 UNI Network@Quebecor World,
 275, 277–279

D

Danish flexicurity approach, 113–114, 118
 Danish Golden Triangle, 259
 Day workers, 224–225
 Deterrence
 Bentham's utilitarianism, 23
 statutory regulation, 23
 theory profit-maximizing skills, 25
 reluctance, regulators, 25 traffic enforcement research, 24
 Discrimination and legal regulation in EU trade unions
 background, 167–168
 differing histories, geographies and contexts categories of trade union, 172
 disability, 175
 Esping-Andersen's typology, 173
 Europe's Rom populations, 175 growth in migration, 174–175 lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) issues, 177
 Lithuanian Trade Union
 Confederation, 176
 minority ethnic participation, 173–174
 regulatory framework, 172–173

religion/belief-based discrimination, 175–176
 sexual orientation, 177–178
 engagement with external bodies, 185–186
 impact of EU Laws
 directives, 178–179
 economic crisis and anti-discrimination strategies, 181–183
 strong non-discrimination ethos, 179
 weak non-discrimination ethos, 179–181
 methodology
 anti-discrimination initiatives, 167
 directives, 165–166
 European-level trade unions and NGOs, 167
 Working Lives Research Institute
 (WLRI), 166
 union renewal and non-discrimination strategy membership growth, 184–185
 monetary budgets, 184
 recruitment of women workers, 183
 union legitimacy bottom-up process, 171
 organizational agendas, 168
 union activity, 169
 Discrimination in the EU in 2009
 survey, 169
 Domestic workers in Brazil
 challenges
 discrimination, 227–229
 high level of informality, 227 informal sector, 226
 low rates of formalization, 227
 racial democracy, 229
 sexual harassment, 229–230
 violence against domestic workers, 229
 description, 221
 innovative policy responses

- appropriate public responses, 230
- Citizen Domestic Worker
 - programme, 233–234
 - debate, 231
 - flaws in Brazilian strategy, 233
 - law reform, 232
 - lowest percentage of trade union membership, 234–235
 - recognition of employment rights, 232–233
 - recognition of rights, 230–231
 - regular work, 231–232
 - right to paid maternity leave, 235
- Regulation
 - Article 7 of the 1988 Constitution, 225, 226
 - day workers, 224–225
 - law no. 11.324/2006, 225–226
- vulnerability, 221–222
- women
 - characteristics, 224
 - 1988 Federal Constitution, 223
 - national survey by IBGE, 223
- Domestic workers in South Africa
 - concepts of ‘decent job’ and ‘decent wage,’ 317
 - decent work, 322
 - definitional perspective, 318
 - gendered family responsibilities, 316
 - labour protection, 322–328
 - labour regulator’s dilemma
 - contract of employment, 320
 - employment by occupation, 319
 - ILO note, 319
 - social protection (international) instruments, 320–321
 - liberal welfare regime, 317
 - part-time employment and subsidized child care services, 316–317
 - reasons for progress, 332–333
 - social protection, 317, 328–332
 - statistical perspective, 318–319
 - women workers, 315–316
- E
 - Economic crisis on anti-discrimination strategies, 181–183
 - EES. See European Employment Strategy
 - Electronic monitoring on employees
 - internet and e-mails
 - on-line communication, 198–199
 - use and access, 197–198
 - Israel
 - case law on monitoring employees’ e-mail, 205–207
 - collective agreement on employee use of computers in workplace, 204–205
 - legal provisions regarding internet and e-mails
 - code of practice, UNI, 201–202
 - Cour de Cassation* in Nikon, 200–201
 - Directive (95/46/EC), 200
 - ILO Code of Practice, 202
 - Lex Nokia*, 203
 - Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000, 202–203
 - United States v. Simmons*, 199–200
 - Employment rate of older workers
 - 2020 Communication note, 301–302
 - in EU27 by age, 303
 - Europe’s structural weaknesses, 302–303
 - in Italy and UK by age, 303
 - Lisbon Strategy, 302
 - obstacles to older people working, 306–307
 - reasons and trends in increase
 - employment rates for young people, 304
 - flexibility, 304
 - men and women working part time, 306
 - self-employment, 305

- workers on part-time employment
 - contracts in EU, 305
 - US labour market, 307–313
 - ETUC. See European Trade Union Confederation
 - European Employment Strategy (EES)
 - Danish Golden Triangle, 259
 - EU27, 255–256
 - EU effect on convergence, 259–260
 - multilevel governance, 258
 - OECD employment database, 259, 260
 - policy mechanism, 258
 - trends on three flexicurity axes, 260
 - European social dialogue autonomy
 - autonomy or decline
 - decentralization, 20
 - EU-level regulation, 21
 - evolutionary phases, 19
 - Lisbon Strategy objectives, 20
 - Communication of the European Commission (CEC), 3
 - constitutional order, 4
 - European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), 4
 - labour law theory, 7–10
 - open method, coordination, 4
 - political science perspective
 - corporatist policy community, 11
 - decision-making processes, 11
 - ‘induced’ autonomous agreements, 12
 - industrial relations theories, 10
 - laissez-faire*, 13
 - legitimacy enhancement, 11–12
 - organized civil society, 11
 - state activism, 11
 - social dialogue
 - bipartite activity, 5
 - endemic decision gap, 6
 - ETUC, CEEP and UNICE, 5, 6
 - Laeken declaration, 2001, 5
 - sectoral management, 7
 - ‘softer’ methods, 6
 - tripartite concertation, 5
 - soft-law source, 14–19
 - European Social Fund, 262–263
 - European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC)
 - UNISON, 156
- F
- Flexicurity
 - discussion on
 - activation strategy, 115
 - active labour market policies (ALMP), 114, 116
 - conceptual fusion, 112
 - Danish flexicurity approach, 113–114
 - European Commission, 114–115
 - generous Unemployment Benefit system, 115–116
 - lifelong learning (LLL), 114–115
 - policy components, 114
 - UBs and ALMPs, 115
 - ‘win-win’ situations, 114
 - EES, 255–256, 258–260
 - Europeanization of employment policies, 255
 - German case, 267–269
 - interpretations, 125–127
 - Italian case, 265–266
 - mobility and (see Mobility)
 - new Member States case
 - Commission Guideline No. 22, 263–264
 - EES, 261
 - European Social Fund, 262–263
 - incapacity benefits in Slovakia, 262
 - NRPs, 264
 - Open Method of Coordination, 263
 - post-communist transformation, 264
 - ‘soft policy’, 262
 - unemployment benefit replacement and coverage rates in Poland, 261–262

- Nordic flexicurity profiles
 - ALMPs, 119
 - EPL strictness, 118–119
 - LLL measurement, 119–120
 - OECD index, 119
 - ranking, 119–120
- state traditions, industrial relations
 - and employment policies, 256–257
- G
- General deterrence
 - corporate reputation, 33, 34
 - electroplating, 32
 - enforcement activity, 35
 - hypothesized prescriptions, 33
 - personal liability, 34, 35
 - potential confounding variables, 31
 - punishment, potential offenders, 24
 - safety management, 32
 - serial correlation bias, 31
 - three-equation model, 31
 - Viscusi reformulation, 31
- I
- IFAs. See International framework agreements
- Individual labour law rights in China
 - accelerating change and post-2008 financial crisis
 - floor of rights, 381–382
 - GDP growth, 377
 - household registration system, 379
 - labour arbitration, 381
 - magnet effect, 380
 - migrant workers, 380
 - private sector growth, 377–378
 - Social Insurance Law, 377
 - socialist market economy, 377
 - State Owned Enterprises (SOEs), 378
 - challenges, 383–384
 - core Conventions, 367–368
 - corporate social responsibility, 369
 - Cultural Revolution, 366–367
 - Employment Promotion Act 2007, 384
 - labour force population, 366
 - Labour Law 1994, 367
 - labour market developments, 382–383
 - modern approach
 - employment policy, 374–375
 - Labour Contract Law, 375
 - labour relationships, 375
 - legislative initiatives, 376
 - restraint of trade clauses, 376
 - pressure for reform
 - core instruments, 374
 - Deng Xiaoping's Open Door declaration, 371–372
 - Employment Promotion Law, 373
 - employment strategy after 1997, 370
 - Mao era, 370
 - special economic zones, 372
 - regulatory reforms, 383
- Industrial relations
 - academic freedom, 250–253
 - Arab region, North Africa and Middle East, 240–241
 - in Britain
 - British Universities Industrial Relations Association (BUIRA), 241
 - environment of employment, 242
 - scholarship, 242
 - teaching and research, 241
 - changing actors and institutions, 245–247
 - ConDem government policies, 239
 - democratic citizenship, 247–250
 - employability, 240
 - employment relations (ER), 240
 - within Europe, 240
 - work and labour
 - employment relationship, 243–244
 - HRM, 244–245

multilevel understanding, 242–243
strikes, 243

Informality, employment contracts and social insurance coverage conceptual adjustment, 429–431

contextual framework in Asia, 420
 informal employment, 421
 ‘informal sector’ and ‘informal economy’, 422
 interrelated considerations, 421–422
 in sub-Saharan Africa, 420
domestic legal system restrictions, 425–426 insufficiency of social security concept, 422–425 restricted application of international social security standards, 427 rights-based and standards approach, 432–433
utilizing employment contract, 428–429

International Framework Agreements (IFAs)

content of, 272
Global Union Federation (GUF), 273
1998 ILO Declaration, 272–273
‘integrative’ process, 273–274
legal nature of approaches, 356
 characteristics, 355–356
 lawfulness, 356–358
 structures to ensure compliance, 359–361
 substance/negotium, 358–359
recent developments, 272

J

JUSTICE@QUEBECOR campaign action strategies, 276
 European structures of social dialogue, 277

Global Solidarity Conference, 275–276 workers’ rights, 276

L

Labour law and employment policy in the EU

Article 118a of Treaty of Rome, 387
Article 6(1) BDASD, 398–399
Article 118 EC, 390
discourse of rights, 402–405
economic constitution, 389–390
FTWD, 399–400
Kükükdeveci case, 401
Lisbon strategy, 396–398
Open Method of Coordination (OMC), 388 productive factor in economic development, 388–389 reintegration of law and policy, 393–396 Rosenbladt case, 401–402
separation of domains, 391–393
Spaak report, 390

Labour law, South Africa’s new corporate rescue mechanism business rescue procedure decision-making process 82–83

 Insolvency Act 1936, 82
 winding up and business rescue, 83 Companies Act 2008, 66–67
dispensation
 Companies Act 2008, 73–74
 definition of affected persons, 75–76 practitioner and plan, role, 78–79
 rescue provisions introduction, 74–75 unpaid salary and finance, 79–80
international position, 67–69
legal disciplines, 66
motivation, 65–66
protection afforded, Insolvency Act
 international position, 71–72
 South Africa position, 69–70, 72–73

Labour law theory
 comparative method, 7
 conceptual paradigm structure, 9
 deconstitutionalization, 9
 European integration dynamics, 10 ex auctoritate legis, 8
 legal scholars, 8
 regulatory and legitimacy resource, 7
Viking and Laval, 9

Labour market flexibility
 description, 41–42
 equal treatment, 47–48
 International Labour Organization (ILO), 46–47
 non-citizens, 44
 regional framework, 50–51
 social protection, 45
 Southern African Development Community agricultural sector, 43–44
 International Organization for Migration, 43

Labour obligations in the US–Chile Free Agreement enforceability clause, 416
 free trade agreements (FTAs), 407–408 labour regulation content, 408–410
 scope and consequences
 Article 18.2.1a and 18.2.1b, 413
 FTA soft law, 415
 procedural reform in 2006, 414
 soft law category, 412
 types of obligations, 413–414
 social clauses, 415–416
 soft law, 410–411

Labour protection
 basic conditions of employment, 324–325 employment protection, 322–323
 freedom of association and collective bargaining, 326–328

Legal quality of international labour law analytical framework
 features, 341
 lawfulness, 342
 structure, 344
 substance/negotium, 343–344
 codes of conduct, 338–339, 345–355
 compliance structures, 339–340
 corporate social responsibility (CSR) agenda, 339
 governance gap, 338
 of IFAs, 356–361
 paradox of (corporate) self-regulation, 362 social provision, 337–338
 spillover effects, 362–363 ‘win-win’ situation, 362

Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) issues, 177

Liberal welfare regime, 317

Location data, 217

M

Mandatory retirement under EU Law age discrimination
 detrimental factor, 288–289
 EU Framework Directive 2000/78/EC, 287–288 Framework Directive, 288
 justification, 289–291
 in collective agreements
 appropriate and necessary means, 296–298
 legitimate aim, 296
 option to continue working, 298–299

Rosenblatt
 appropriate and necessary means, 295–296
 legitimate aim in the statute, 292–293

- standards to evaluate legitimacy, 293–294
- wide margin of discretion, 294–295

Migration

- international migration, 42
- migrant worker
 - instruments, 48–49
 - position, 45–46

Mobility

- Anglo-Saxon countries, 116–117
- crucial forms, 117
- Danish flexicurity model, 118
- data
 - national labour force surveys, 120–121
 - unemployment levels, 121
- dependent variables, 116
- ‘inner circle’ and ‘outer circle’ labour market transitions, 117
- re-entry into self-employment, 117
- results
 - cross-national variation, 122
 - employment status, 121–122
 - odds ratios for four Nordic countries, 123
 - population density, 124
 - ranking of countries, 124–125
 - stability and change of employment status, 122–123
 - unemployment to employment assessment, 124

Multilevel governance system, 258

N

National Education Association (NEA), 98

Nordic flexicurity profiles

- Active Labour Market Policies (ALMPs), 119
- EPL strictness, 118–119
- LLL measurement, 119–120

- OECD index, 119
- ranking, 119–120

O

Occupational health and safety (OHS) law

- enforcement and deterrence
 - non-compliance, 25
 - Robens-style legislation, 26
- findings and implications
 - decision-making process, 38
 - entrenched ambiguity, 37
 - higher fines, 36
 - optimal level regulation, 37
 - profit maximization, 38
 - prohibition notices, 36
 - quantitative research, 35
 - reputation loss, 36
 - reshuffling of managerial priorities, 38
 - revitalized theory, 39
 - robust approach, 36
 - user-friendly information, 37
 - work-related hazards, 38, 39
- general deterrence, 31–35
- specific deterrence, 26–30

Open Method of Coordination, 263

P

Pan-Cyprian Federation of Labour (PEO), 170

PEO. See Pan-Cyprian Federation of Labour

Performance-related pay (PRP), Chinese education system

- appraisals and competition, 106
- concepts, 97–98
- employee responses, 100–101
- funding, 104
- Human resource management (HRM), 96
- implementation of PRP
 - China, 100

- Ireland, Italy, France, and Norway, 99
 - Japan, 98–100
 - OECD countries, 98
 - research question, 100
 - US and UK, 99–100
 - meaning, 95
 - paradox, 107
 - results
 - employee responses, 104
 - practices, 102–104
 - PRP system, 96–97
 - research methods, 101–102
 - teacher responses, 105
 - salary ratio, 104, 106
 - school management, 106–107
 - teacher attitudes, 106
 - Phones and mobile phone use
 - Copland v. the United Kingdom* case, 209–210
 - Halford v. United Kingdom* case, 210–211
 - Principles and guidelines, surveillance and monitoring of employees
 - legitimate purpose, 207
 - proportionality, 207
 - transparency, 207–208
 - Privacy
 - European Union and European approaches
 - Article 8, Council of Europe's Convention, 192
 - EU Directives, 194
 - Niemitz v. Germany*, 193
 - v. US* legal system, 192
 - international legal sources and soft law arrangements
 - Collective Agreement No. 81 and No. 68, 195–196
 - ILO guidelines, 194–195
 - Union Network International (UNI), 195
 - Israeli legal sources, 196
 - US legal approach
 - basic principle, 191–192
 - Electronic Communications Privacy Act (ECPA), 191
- Q
- Quebecor World Inc. (QWI)
 - collective bargaining theory and transnational labour negotiation
 - bargaining power of MNCs, 285
 - institutional deficiencies, 286
 - interdependence of management and union parties, 285–286
 - intra-organizational bargaining processes, 285
 - legal framework, 283–284
 - structural context of negotiation, 283
 - Walton and McKersie's model, 282–283
 - financial situation, 274
 - IFA negotiation
 - attitudinal structuring, 281–282
 - distributive bargaining, 279–280
 - integrative bargaining, 280
 - intra-organizational bargaining, 282
 - international contacts, 274
 - UNI Network@Quebecor World
 - actions, 277–279
- QWI. See Quebecor World Inc.
- S
- Social protection
 - health care, 331
 - occupational injuries and diseases, 329–331
 - retirement, 331–332
 - unemployment, 328–329
 - Soft-law source
 - autonomous route, 14
 - company-based system, 15

- ‘conditioned’ self-regulation, 14, 17
 - inter-institutional agreement, 2003, 15, 16
 - NEPSI Council, 18, 19
 - obligatory and normative effects, 15
 - operational entity, 19
 - progressive symbiosis, 17
 - self and co-regulation, 16
 - sui generis* process, 18
 - voluntary’ typology, 16
 - Southern African Development
 - Community region, inflexible social protection
 - benefits, 54–55
 - Botswana, 61
 - factors, 52–54
 - Lesotho, 62
 - Malawi, 55–56
 - Mauritius, 60
 - South Africa, 56–60
 - Swaziland, 61
 - Zambia, 62–63
 - Specific deterrence
 - Britain and Australia, 30
 - data quality, 27
 - detection, criminal behaviour, 24
 - effectiveness quantification, 27
 - enforcement activity impact, 29
 - firm based, 31
 - Health and Safety Executive (HSE), 30
 - OSHA-approved programs, 27
 - Poisson model, 29
 - prohibition notices, 30
 - study design, 28
 - theoretical foundations, 27
 - Strong non-discrimination ethos, 179
 - Sub-optimal job search strategies, 313
 - Surveillance and monitoring of
 - employees
 - electronic monitoring of employees
 - Israeli case, 203–207
 - legal provisions regarding internet and e-mail, 199–203
 - monitoring of internet and e-mail, 198–199
 - use and access of internet and e-mail, 197–198
 - employee consent, 208–209
 - miscellaneous
 - call centres, 218
 - location data, 217
 - principles and guidelines
 - legitimate purpose, 207
 - proportionality, 207
 - transparency, 207–208
 - privacy
 - European Union and European approaches, 192–194
 - international legal sources and soft law arrangements, 194–196
 - Israeli legal sources, 196
 - US legal approach, 191–192
 - right to privacy, phones and mobile phone use
 - Copland v. the United Kingdom*, 209–210
 - Halford v. United Kingdom*, 210–211
 - surveillance cameras and CCTV, 211–215
 - theft prevention checks, 215–217
 - Surveillance cameras and CCTV
 - Belgian law of 8 December 1982, 214
 - Eisner v. Richmond Knitting Company Ltd*, 213
 - Hernandez v. Hillsides, Inc.*, 212
 - Lidl*, 213
 - Olga Mochi and others v. Mishan Centre*, 214
- T
- TFEU. See Treaty on the Functioning of European Union

Theft prevention checks
 Collective Agreement No. 89 on, 216 precarious balance, Belgium, 216–217 security checks, 216

Trade unions and new Member State workers in Germany and UK case study
 ETUC, 142
 themes, 142–143

European dimension
 DGB's suggestion to Europeanize policies, 161
 ETUC, 162–163
 EU's policy of Europeanizing national labour law systems, 164 more 'social Europe', 160–161
 Open Method of Coordination
 (OMC), 162

Europeanization, 139–140
Gastarbeiter (guest workers), 141 history of, 141
 level of cooperation
 ETUC, 155–156
 Ver.di, UNISON, 154–155

national legal frameworks
 UNISON, 156–159
 Ver.di, 159–160

'top-down' approach, 140

UNISON
 description, 143
 responses to enlargement and
 transitional arrangements, 143–144
 responses to new Member State
 workers, 144–148

Ver.di
 description, 148–149
 responses to enlargement and
 transitional arrangements, 149–151
 responses to new Member State
 workers, 151–154

Treaty on the Functioning of European Union (TFEU)

autonomous route, 14
 constitutional protection, 3
 Treaty on European Union (TEU), 4

U

UNICE. See Union of Industrial and Employer's Confederations of Europe

UNI Network@Quebecor World
 activities, 278
 international agreement, 278–279
 neutrality agreement, 277
 protocol, 277–278

Union of Industrial and Employer's Confederations of Europe
 (UNICE), 5, 6

UNISON
 description, 143
 national legal frameworks
 British labour law system, 156–157 discrimination of migrant workers, 158
 Memorandum of Understanding, 158–159
 role as mediator between workers and the government, 158
 TUC Commission on Vulnerable
 Employment, 157
 responses to enlargement and
 transitional arrangements, 143–144
 responses to new Member State workers
 Annual Report 2008/2009, 144
 General Political Fund (GPF), 145
 migrant workers, 146
 Migration Unit, 147–148
 objectives, 146–147
 Overseas Nurses Network, 148
 recruitment, 148
 TUC Commission on Vulnerable
 Employment, 145
 workshops, 147
 and Ver.di, 154–155

US labour market for older workers employment and unemployment in flexible labour market annual average monthly unemployment rate, 310

 global economic crisis, 310
 Great Recession, 309 older v. younger workers, 310–311 employment rates by age, 309
 flexible system, 308
 obstacles
 barriers erected by employers, 311–313
 sub-optimal job search strategies, 313
 trends, 307

V

Ver.di. See Vereinte

Dienstleistungsgewerkschaft

Vereinte Dienstleistungsgewerkschaft (Ver.di)

aims, 149
 description, 148–149
 national legal frameworks, 159–160
 responses to enlargement and
 transitional arrangements
 DGB, 149–150
 imposition of transitional measures, 151
 manifesto on a social Europe, 150
 responses to new Member State workers
 Europe Officer recognition, 151
 Gastarbeiter, 153
 ‘make migration visible’, 153–154
 Migration Officer, 152
 Migration Unit, 152–153
 and UNISON, 154–155

W

Walton and McKersie’s model, 282–283

Weak non-discrimination ethos,
 179–181

WLRI. See Working Lives Research Institute

Women and domestic work
 characteristics, 224
 1988 Federal Constitution, 223
 national survey by IBGE, 223

Working Lives Research Institute
 (WLRI), 166

Working time changing nature, 133–135
 changing regulation
 management and employees, 132–133
 statutory regulation, 131–132
 union-management relations, 132
 employer’s power, 138 Europe 2020 priority target, 129 importance of, 129–130
 work and non-work responsibilities, 137
 work-life balance (see Work-life balance)

Work-life balance ability to work partly from home, 136
 employment hierarchies, 136
 Third Work-Life Balance Employee
 Survey, 135
 work and non-work goals, 135
 work characteristics, 137