

Subject Index

A

Anti-Crisis Act, 422, 433

B

Britain

enforcing Non-discrimination Law,
499–501

Labour Law enforcement, 495–496

mutual learning, 509–510

rules, procedural safeguards, 505

C

Canadian Labour Code, 390–391

Caregiver, US

discrimination, 61–62

litigation

Back v. Hastings on Hudson Union Free School District, 57–58

Civil Rights Act 1964, 56

claims, disparate impact and treatment cases, 60–61

discrimination, 56

disparate treatment sex

discrimination, 56

FRD lawsuits, Center for WorkLife

Law, 56, 58

guidelines, EEOC, 58–60

jobs design, 55

maternal wall bias, 57

reconciling work and family, 55 responsibilities, 55

sick leave, employee's own illness and care for premature child, 61

termination of employment, 61

workplace/workforce mismatch and remedies, 55

CEACR. See Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and
Recommendations (CEACR)

CEDAW. See Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women
(CEDAW)

CFA. See Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA)

Civil Rights Act 1964, 56

Code of Equal Opportunity 2006, Art.
18, 502

Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and
Recommendations (CEACR), 289

Committee on Freedom of Association
(CFA), 401–402, 417–418

Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW), 378

Criminalization of sexual harassment,
Nigerian workplaces academic institutions, 374

banking sector, 372–373

Canadian Labour Code, 379–380

CEDAW, 378

common law, possibilities negligence, 375–376
 private nuisance, 377
 trespass to the person, 374–375
 constitutional and legislative safeguards,
 383–384
 ‘culture of silence’, 365
 denial of benefits, 366–367
 description, 367–368
 domestic workers, 373
 Lagos State
 adoption of special measures, 388 criminal harassment and assault, 387 criminal offences, 385–386 draft Bill, 385 educational institutions, 386–387 provision of compensatory mechanisms, 388
 male supremacy, 366
Meritor Savings Bank v. Vinson, 382 micro politics, 366
 Namibian definition, 380–381
 Namibian Labour Act, 380
 natural/biological model, 368–369
 nature and incidence, empirical studies,
 370–372
Ntsabo v. Real Security, 382 organizational model, 369 physical contact, 381–382
 preventive and responsive mechanisms
 Canadian Labour Code, 390–391
 contracts of employment, termination, 389
 education and awareness programmes,
 390
 EEOC guidelines, 389–390
 financial services, 391 legislative and policy approach, 391–392
 non-employees, 390
 recommendations, 392–394
 South African Labour Act, 381
 UK legislation, 379

D

Danish model, 337
 Deliberative democracy and trade unions,
 Australia and UK
 common goods for workers, 128 communications, 126 decision and law making, 125 employer and individuals, 128 guide public policy, 125
 majoritarian model, 127–128
 micro and macro-levels of governance, 126 normative elements, 125–126 political engagement, 127
 regulations, 129–130
 Deliberative pre-conditions, strikes obligation, Australia, 139–141 relationship, trade unions and membership, 138
 Democracy in state and workplace,
 122–125
 Discrimination against mothers, US caregiver discrimination, 61–62
 litigation, 55–61
 EU Labour Law and legislation, 47–48 hostile public policy environment, 46 late eighteenth century, 46 maternal wall, 49–53
 men and caregiver bias, 53–55
 motherhood penalty, 48–49
 reduction, work-family conflicts, 46 work-family reconciliation, 45–46
 workplaces, 21st century, 46
 Dismissals for personal reasons/redundancy,
 Sweden
 and collective bargaining developments, 460–462
 definitions, 453
 descriptions, 452–453
 economic, organizational/business-related characters, 453
 employer and duty, 453–454

- EPA 1982, 454
 - and personal reasons, 453
 - priority right, re-employment of
 - employee, 454
 - qualifications and employability,
 - employee's, 455
 - regulation, 452–453
 - statutory employment protection
 - regulation, 455
 - statutory seniority rules, 454
 - Swedish Labour Court-Labour Court
 - judgment AD 2009:50, 455–460
 - Doctorate in labour relations, Marco Biagi Foundation
 - accommodation and legal status, 101
 - bursaries, 105
 - capacitas project, 106
 - description, 100
 - funds and relationship, 101
 - market orientation and interdisciplinary
 - nature, 105–106
 - multidisciplinary programme and
 - research areas, 103–104
 - organizational structure and
 - establishment, 102–103
 - private sector/public body, 105
 - professional development, 104–105
 - psychological contract, 107
 - regulation, instrumental activities,
 - 100–101
 - socio-technical theory, 108
 - workforce reduction and collective
 - bargaining, 107
- E
- EC-ECB-IMF Programmes, recasting
 - Greek industrial relations
 - agreement, 202
 - analysis, 202
 - collective bargaining rights, 213–214
 - decentralization of wage bargaining,
 - social partners, 209–210
 - dispute settlement, arbitration, 212–213
 - economic behaviour, 209
 - employees right, 210
 - EPP, 200–201
 - EU/IMF initiative, 200
 - ILO, 214
 - internal devaluation, 202, 210–212
 - labour market reforms, minimum wages
 - and salaries, 213
 - private-sector, 2010, 208
 - wage policy guideline, 208
 - ECtHR. See European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)
 - EEA. See Employment Equity Act (EEA) 1998, South Africa
 - EEC. See European Economic Community (EEC)
 - EEOC. See Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) guidelines
 - EES. See European Employment Strategy (EES)
 - Employability
 - after Second World War, 229
 - cooperation skills, EU policy (see EU employment policies)
 - definition, 228
 - early 1900s, 228–229
 - initiative and interactive, 229–230
 - late 19th and early 20th centuries, 230
 - political and economic theory, 228
 - Employees' ability to cooperate
 - description, 223, 226–227
 - duty to cooperate, 235
 - employability, 233–234
 - employers' decision-making
 - collective agreement, 237
 - direct discrimination,
 - employee/jobseeker, 239
 - employee's performance, 237
 - lack substantial knowledge, 238
 - measure and evaluation, 235
 - prohibitions, EU countries, 238–239
 - requirement, applicants, 236

- rights, 237
- subjective perception, 239–240
- Sweden, 235–236
- vagueness, 238
- wages/working conditions, 238
- employment contract, 240–242
- impediments, 242–245
- labour market and social policies, 234
- legal framework, 235
- responsibility, 234
- Employees' cooperation skills and Labour Law
 - ability (see Employees' ability to cooperate)
 - British employers, 224
 - business competitiveness, 224–225
 - descriptions, 227–228
 - developments, 247
 - employability (see Employability)
 - employment policy framework, EU 2020, 246
 - legal implications, 246
 - meaning, 225–226
 - nature and interpersonal/soft skills, 224
 - negative and positive demand, employee, 226
 - and negotiation, 225
 - personal characteristics and qualifications, 247
 - regulations, 247–248
 - requirements, 223–224
 - survey, 224
 - unemployable, 246
- Employment Equity Act (EEA) 1998, South Africa, 41
- Employment Protection Act (EPA) 1982, 450–451, 454, 466
- Employment protection legislation (EPL) flexibility, 343–347
- Enforcing (EU) non-discrimination law
 - aspirational law enforcement, 492–494
 - Britain (see Britain)
 - description, 490
 - gender equality law, 489–490
 - Italy (see Italy)
 - judicial enforcement and industrial relations, 491
 - mutual learning
 - enforcement, British and Italy, 509–510
 - theoretical framework, 506–509
 - scope, mutual learning, 494–495
- Environmental pressures, doctoral research programmes
 - Bologna Declaration, 86
 - costs, 87–88
 - cultural and scientific knowledge production, 82, 83
 - diversification of income, 88
 - economic and social development, 83
 - historical continuity, higher education, 82
 - imperfect adaptation, universities, 85
 - institutional control, 85–86
 - interactions, 84
 - management skills and techniques, 84
 - standardization, higher education programmes, 86–87
 - State and University relationship, 85
 - state funding and universities dependence, 86
 - universities, faculties and student enrollment, 82–84
- EPA 1982. See Employment Protection Act (EPA), 1982
- EPP. See Euro-plus pact (EPP)
- Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) guidelines, 58–60, 389–390
- Equal pay/equal treatment principle, agency workers
 - definition, 190–191
 - derogate powers
 - collective agreements, Article 5 § 3, 193–196
 - description, 192

- exemption, 192
- Member States, Article 5 § 4, 196
- open-ended employment contracts, Article 5 § 2, 192–193
- influence, collective agreements, 191–192
- working conditions, 191
- ETUC. See European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC)
- EU citizenship
 - claiming welfare rights, 322–324
 - coordination rules and
 - nationality conditions, 309–310
 - residence conditions, 310–311
 - special non-contributory benefits, 311–312
 - defining membership of solidarity system, 308–309
 - description, 307–308
 - economic contribution, 327–328
 - market citizens, residence, 324–326
 - objective justifications
 - Dutch policy, 320
 - labour market, 320
 - maintenance costs, students, 318–319
 - requirement, 320–322
 - taxation, 318
 - tide-over allowances, 319–320
- Regulation 492/2011
 - material scope, 315
 - nationality and residence conditions, 315–316
 - personal scope, 313–315
 - residence conditions, 312–313
 - separate identity, borders, 330–331
 - social EU citizenship, 330
 - solidarity benefits, coordination
 - Regulation, 329–330
- TFEU Article 18
 - claiming welfare rights, 322–324
 - nationality and residence conditions, 318
 - Regulation 492/2011, 317
- threat for welfare States, 331–332
- weak economic link, 328–329
- EU employment policies
 - adoption, European Employment Strategy, 230–231
 - employees' ability, 230
 - employees' protection, workforce, 231–232
 - flagship initiatives, 232–233
 - mid-2000s, 231
 - quality education and opportunities, 2020, 233
 - social and civic competences, 232
- European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), 285–286
- European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), 157–158, 160
- European Economic Community (EEC), 202–204, 218, 220
- European Employment Strategy (EES), 11–12
- European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC), 6–8, 10
- Euro-plus pact (EPP), 18, 181, 200–201, 214
- Euroscepticism, national industrial relations system, Greek
 - Amsterdam Treaty, 220
- decentralization, collective bargaining, 214–215
- early 1990s, 217–218
- EC-ECB-IMF Economic Adjustment Programme, 214
- EEC entry, 220
- EPP and macroeconomic imbalance procedure, 214
- EU directives transposition and institutions, 217
- financial and debt crisis, 216
- IMF, 216–217
- integration, 1950s and 1960s, 218
- internal devaluation, 216
- late 1980s, federal integration model, 219

- Lisbon strategy, 219–220
- Maastricht Treaty, 214
- militant unionism and union
 - resolutions, 218
- neo-liberal EEC, 219
- ownership, 216
- Programmes (see EC-ECB-IMF
 - Programmes, recasting Greek industrial relations)
- regulations, 218–219
- restructure, economy, 219
- structural policy development, 219
- supra-national institutions, early 1990s, 219
- TFEU Article 126, 214
- twentieth-century, 220
- ‘unique and exceptional’, 215
- Evolution of doctoral research
 - programmes, Italy
- adaptation and changes, 108
- description, 81–82
- doctoral education, traditional-executive Ph.D
 - Bologna process, 94
 - characteristics, research students, 98
 - definition, 1980 Act, 94–95
 - developments, 95
 - financial incentives, 96–97
 - first and second levels, higher education, 99
 - internal assessment, 95
 - monitoring and control, 95
 - objectives and developments, 96
 - redesign and empirical surveys, 99–100
 - relationships, 96
 - requirements, 95
 - research school and types, 97–98
 - standardization, 95
- environmental pressures, Italian case (see Environmental pressures, doctoral research programmes)
- labour relations (see Doctorate in labour relations, Marco Biagi Foundation)
- philosophical and professional doctorates
 - changes, Ph.D. programmes, 93–94
 - characteristics, 93
 - clients and buying behaviour, 92–93
 - educational services, 92
 - in Europe, 88–89
 - exploitation of knowledge, 89
 - features, 90–92
 - fundamental and applied research, 90
- Evolution of freedom of association, Fraser
 - Agricultural Labour Relations Act, 403
- BC Health Service and ILO
 - collective bargaining, 405–406
 - fundamental principles and rights, works, 408–409
 - international instruments, 406
 - jurisprudence, 407–408
 - reactions, 409
 - SCC, Canada, 406–407
- conformity, 413–417
- decision, 410–412
- establishment, general labour relations, 402–403
- governments tacitly/explicitly, 404–405
- international human rights law and SCC, 403–404
- International Labour Law, 412–413
- interpretation, 404
- protection of collective bargaining, 404
- Supreme Court of Canada (SCC) and ILO
 - constitutional protection, 400
 - control mechanisms, 399–400
 - Declaration, ILO, 398–399
 - individual rights, 400
 - PI.P.S.C. v. Northwest Territories (Commissioner)*, 400–401
 - recommendations, CFA, 401–402

- right to collective bargaining and strike, 401
- F
- Fair Work Act 2009, 78
- Family responsibilities discrimination (FRD), 56, 58
- Forced labour and migrant berry pickers
Sweden
adverse employment conditions, 147 arduous, low-paid occupation and working conditions, 151 blueberry fiasco, 152 cost of travel and accommodation, 151
description, 148–149
facts, 150
identification, 147–148
ILO (see International Labour Organization (ILO)) interviews, 149–150
labour market model, 166–168
legislative framework, 161–166
Lomsjö Bär, 154–156
official employment contract and visas restrictions, 152 perspectives, 147
prohibitions, 148
regulation, 168–172
revolt
guaranteed contract, 152
lack of language facilities, 153
poor harvest, 153
Vietnamese berry pickers, 153–154 rice farmers, Thailand, 151 right to roam, 151
- FRD. See Family responsibilities discrimination (FRD)
- Free-Charging Employment Agencies Convention 1949, 33
- Freedom of association, Canada and ILO Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, 397–398
description, 398
evolution (see Evolution of freedom of association, FRASER) Health Services and Support-Facilities Subsector Bargaining Association v. British-Columbia, 398
international labour law, 418–419
Ontario (General Attorney) v. Fraser, 397
SCC and CFA, 417–418
scope, 417
- G
- Gender stereotyping, 56, 59
- Ghanaian Labour Act, 369
- I
- ILO. See International Labour Organization (ILO)
- IMF. See International Monetary Fund (IMF)
- Imposition of majoritarian, Australia and UK, 135–138
- Industrial relations systems, innovation, and economic performance analysis, 273–275
capitalist economies, 262
continuity and changes of industrial relations, Netherlands (see The Netherlands) contribution, 263
description, 249–250
impact of, 251
individual decision-making, 251
‘intellectual capital’, 263–267 liberal market and institutionalist, 250 literature, 261–262
LMEs, 273
neo-liberalism, 250–251
radical v. incremental, 262
standardized and statutory regulation, 250
- In Memoriam–Bill Wedderburn, 113–114

- International Labour Organization (ILO)
- Conventions, 287
 - employment agencies
 - after World War II, 33
 - 1997 Convention, 43
 - description, 31
 - development, South African labour law system, 43
 - equal conditions of service and same remuneration, 34, 43
 - establishment, public employment agency, 33
 - Fee-Charging Employment Agencies Convention 1933, 32–33
 - labour market, 34
 - private employment agencies, 34
 - Private Employment Agencies Convention 1997, 33–34
 - prohibition, 32
 - promoting social justice, global context, 31–32
 - regulation, 34–35
 - right to freedom of association and collective bargaining, 34
 - social partners, Namibia, 43–44
 - unemployment, World War I, 32
 - forced labour, Sweden
 - Article 2.1, 156–157
 - definition, 157
 - early years, 157
 - ECtHR Article 4, 157–158, 160
 - employment relationship, 158
 - menace of any penalty, 159–160
 - Siliadin* case, 158–159
 - trafficking, human beings, 160
 - transnational crime, 160–161
 - victims, 159
 - voluntary offer, 158
 - freedom of association (see Freedom of association, Canada and ILO)
 - International monetary fund (IMF), 216–217
 - International norms and development of employment agencies, South Africa
 - developments, 31
 - globalization, 29–30
 - ILO (see International Labour Organization (ILO))
 - joint and several liability, 44
 - non-standard employees, 29
 - private and public institutions, 30
 - regulation
 - Africa Personnel Services*, 42
 - amendments, LRA, 41–42
 - BCEA 1997, 37
 - EEA 1998, 41
 - employees protection, 36
 - Employment Services Bill, ILO, 42
 - fundamental human rights, 35–36
 - labour hire industry growth, 35
 - LRA 1956, 35
 - Namibia guidance, 39–40
 - negotiations, 42–43
 - relationship, 37
 - requirements, labour assessment report, 37–38
 - social partners, 38
 - ‘state of the art’ act, 36
 - temporary employment services, 36–37
 - trade union federations, 38–39
 - regulatory impact assessment, 30–31
 - Italy
 - enforcing non-discrimination law
 - Articles 214 and 215/2003, 502
 - collective agreements, 503–504
 - Directives, 501
 - gender discrimination, 501–502
 - integration of foreign labour, national collective agreements, 505
 - judicial enforcement, 502
 - labour markets, 505
 - victim of racial discrimination, 502–503
 - Workers’ Statute, Article 28, 503

- and FIAT, industrial relations
 - breach, company tradition, 472
 - chairmen, 472
 - characteristics, 471–472
 - Chrysler, 475–476
 - collective agreement, 481–483
 - conflict, 1980, 471
 - crisis of system, 479–481
 - developments, 471
 - environment and economic
 - performance, 475
 - global crisis, 472
 - impact of, 476–477
 - impacts, Americanization, 483–485
 - management, 473–474
 - production process and managerial
 - practices, 473
 - public discourse, 473
 - relationship, 472
 - restructuring, 476
 - traditional characteristics, 477–479
 - World Class Manufacturing, 476
 - Labour Law enforcement, 496–498
 - mutual learning, 509–510
 - positive action, gender equality, 505–506
- L
- Labour Relations Act (LRA), 1956, 35
 - Liberal Market Economies (LMEs), 273
 - LMEs. See Liberal Market Economies (LMEs)
- M
- Majoritarian ‘democratic’ balloting require-
 - ments and individual protections
 - Australian
 - in 1996, 132–133
 - amendments, Work Choices Act, 134
 - coalition, 133
 - description, 130–131
 - industrial dispute procedure, 131
 - labours party industrial relations
 - reforms act, 132
 - provisions, 133–134
 - evaluation, 138
 - trade unions and strike ballots, UK,
 - 135–138
 - Maternal wall discrimination
 - bias against mothers, workplace, 50
 - descriptive stereotypes-affirming
 - information, 50
 - flexibilities, 52
 - full-time and part-time workers, 52–53
 - gender discrimination, 49
 - glass-ceiling discrimination, 49
 - pregnancy, 51
 - second child syndrome, 52
 - social status, 50–51
 - women returning from maternity leave,
 - 51–52
 - work part time schedule, 52
 - Men and caregiver bias, 53–55
 - Monti II Regulation, fundamental social
 - rights and economic freedoms
 - adequate legal instrument
 - democratic and economic order of
 - the EU, 283–284
 - national and international law,
 - 285–287
 - practical consequences, hierarchy of
 - rules, 284–285
 - alert mechanism, 297–299
 - description, 279–280, 306
 - dispute resolution mechanism
 - chilling effect, 295–297
 - cooling off collective actions,
 - 293–295
 - labour disputes and collective action,
 - 293
 - national industrial relations systems,
 - 292–293
 - right to access to equal access,
 - 290–292
 - general principles
 - equal status, 288
 - principle of proportionality, 289–290

history, content and development, 280–283 possible ways out of the dilemma

- essential services, 303–304
- European Social Charter, 304–305
- evaluation, 305
- ILO practice, 303
- international law and standards, 302–303
- TFEU Article 26(3), 301–302
- TFEU Article 153, 301

subsidiarity objection of national parliaments, 299–300

Motherhood penalty, 48–49

Multinationals and national industrial relations, global economic crisis

- description, 471–472
- EU institutions, 470
- Italy (see Italy)
- 2008 starting, 470
- two-tier model, FIAT
 - Berlusconi administration, 485
 - collective bargaining, 485–486
 - diversification, 487
 - effective functioning, 485
 - external general framework, 487
 - intersectoral agreement, 486–487
 - outcomes, 487
 - regulations, 487–488
 - representativeness, 487
 - Workers' Statute, 486

N

Namibian Labour Act, 380

National Labor Relations Act, 78

P

Poland

- living standards and equality, 426–428
- long working hours and labour market
 - Biedronka* case, 438
 - lack of compliance, 437

National Workplace Inspectorate, 435–436

regulation, 437–438

statutory limits, 435

survey, 436–437

working-time regulation, post-transition period

- amendments, 2004 accession, 431
- Anti-Crisis Act and settlement of social partners, 433
- care giving obligations, 435
- EU accession, 430–431
- 'family friendly' flexibility measures, 435
- flexibility and working-time extensions, 432
- flexible and business-friendly legal framework, 429
- health-care sector, 434
- Labour Code's, 429–430
- lobbying, 429
- making overtime, 431–432
- standard schedule, 2003 amendment, 432–433
- statutory holidays, Article 134, 431
- strong trade union, 434
- unemployment, 430

Poland Labour Code's, 429–430

Posting of Workers Directive (PWD), 187–188, 190

Private Employment Agencies Convention 1997, 33–34, 40, 42, 43

PWD. See Posting of Workers Directive (PWD)

R

Recasting Greek industrial relations

- description, debt and competitiveness crisis, 201

EC-ECB-IMF Programmes (see EC-ECB-IMF Programmes, recasting Greek industrial relations)

- EU integration, 201
 - Europeanization, 203–204
 - Euro Plus Pact (EPP), 200
 - Euroscepticism (see Euroscepticism, national industrial relations system, Greek)
 - impacts, economic and debt crisis 2008, 199–200
 - legal initiatives and jurisdiction, 221–222
 - Maastricht Treaty, early 1990s, 200
 - Third Hellenic Republic
 - economic growth, 1992–2004, 208
 - evolution, national industrial relations, 205
 - First and Second World War, 205
 - market developments, and reforms, 206–207
 - post-Civil War, mid-1950s, 205
 - regulation and trade union reforms, 205–206
 - shape politicians and labour movement, 204–205
 - since 1974, 204
 - social movements, 1974, 206
 - union fragmentation and density estimation, 207
 - wage policy and employment protection, 1974–1990, 206
 - Russian employment protection, EU flexicurity policy
 - active labour market policies
 - benefits, 354
 - educational imbalance, 353–354
 - education and training, 354–355
 - job protection, 354
 - measures, employment crisis, 351–352
 - regional programmes, 352–353
 - unemployment rates, 353
 - definition, flexicurity, 336
 - description, 335
 - Dutch and Danish models, 336–337
 - effective social dialogue
 - absence of inter-union relations, 358
 - analogous institutions, 359
 - Centre for Social and Labour Rights, 356–357
 - erga omnes* collective agreements, 358
 - independent trade union complaints, 359–360
 - lack of trade-union transparency rules, 358
 - latency of labour conflicts, 360
 - ‘pro-majority union’, collective bargaining, 357–358
 - right to strike, restrictions, 359
 - strike statistics, 356
 - Trade Unions Act, 355–356
 - employment and labour regulation, 337–338
 - employment protection regulation and policy, 349–351
 - EPL, 343–347
 - fixed-term work, 342
 - inclusive growth, 338
 - Labour Law flexibility, 339–340
 - minimum wage regulation, 347–349
 - part-time work, 342
 - RSPP proposals, 361–362
 - smart growth, 338
 - sustainable growth, 338
 - temporary agency work, 342–343
 - termination of employment, 340–342
 - Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs (RSPP) proposals, 361–362
- S
- Sex discrimination, 47, 56–58, 60, 61
 - South African Labour Act, 381
 - Strike regulation, Australia and UK
 - Australian and British Labour Law, 116
 - balloting requirements (see Majoritarian ‘democratic’ balloting requirements and individual protections)

- deliberative pre-conditions (see Deliberative pre-conditions, strikes)
 - description, 116–117
 - developments
 - deliberative democracy and trade unions, 125–130
 - state and workplace, 122–125
 - industrial conciliation and arbitration, Australian system, 115
 - regulation, Australia and UK, 117–121
 - voluntarist system, UK, 115
 - Structure of TAW contractual relationships
 - duration, employment and business contract, 180
 - duties, 180
 - fixed-term contracts, 181
 - Member States requirements, Article 5 § 5, 181
 - regulation, 181
 - stepping-stone effect, 181
 - temporary nature of assignments, 181
 - triangular relationship, 179–180
 - Swedish employment protection analysis
 - 'arbitrary' dismissals, 464–465
 - employability and labour market transitions, 463
 - EPA 1982, 466
 - equal treatment of permanent employees, 463
 - fixed-term workers, 463
 - individual employees protection, 466
 - Labour Court's interpretation, 465
 - reasons, dismissals, 465–466
 - statutory requirement, 463–464
 - transition agreements, 466–467
 - developments, 443
 - effects, globalization, 443
 - flexicurity discourse and economic crisis, EU
 - Atkinson's model, 445–446
 - description, 445
 - early developments, 444–445
 - employability and labour market transitions, 449
 - employee's extensive obligation and employer's right, 445
 - employment protection, 448–449
 - functions, 447–448
 - measures, Member States, 449–450
 - modernization, Labour Law, 446–447
 - and reliable contractual arrangements, 447
 - security, 446
 - 2020 Strategy, 447
 - Labour Law and industrial relations system, 444
 - regulation, 443–444
 - dismissals (see Dismissals for personal reasons/redundancy, Sweden)
 - EPA 1982, 450–451
 - statutory and legislative reform, 451–452
- T
- TAW. See Temporary agency work (TAW)
 - Teaching Labour Law
 - Australia
 - qualification, 77–78
 - reforms, legislatures, 78
 - transfer of business, 78
 - common law jurisdiction, 74–75
 - enormous and exhausting changes, local laws, 77
 - gender inequality, discrimination and harassment, 71
 - influences, international law, 75–77
 - Labour Law curriculum, 71–72
 - methods, 78–79
 - traditional curriculum, 72–74
 - Temporary employment services, 36–37
 - The Netherlands
 - continuity and changes, of industrial relations

- 'consensus economy', 2007, 260–261
- contemporary capitalism, 251
- Coordinated Market Economy, 256
- divergence approach, 251–252
- Dutch Flexibility and Security Act
 - 1999, 260
- Dutch industrial relations, 257–259, 261
- globalization and
 - market/money-divergence, 252–253
- labour market flexibility, 256–257
- market-based SSIPs, 257
- neo-liberalism, 251
- small states thesis, 255–256
- varieties of capitalism, 253–255
- Wassenaar Agreement, 1982, 259–260
- worker rights and collective bargaining, 259
- innovation capacity and economic
 - performance, industrial relations description, 267–268
 - internet use, 272–273
 - knowledge-driven economy, 272
- Nordic Innovation Monitor,
 - OECD-countries, 268–272
- Trade unions, Lisbon and Europe, 2020
- ambiguities
 - Delors White Paper, 1993, 12–13
 - description, Union, 11
 - economic and social objectives, 14
 - EES, 11–12
 - employability, 14
 - ETUC activities, 12
 - labour market targets, 11
 - new strategic goal, 12
 - remedies, Lisbon Strategy, 13–14
 - social exclusion, 11
 - UNICE, 13
- analysis, EU Commission's public
 - consultation, 5
- characteristics, Lisbon Strategy, 5
- civil society, 5–6
- consultation
 - Commission reactions and proposals, 10–11
 - Green Paper, 6
 - regulation, financial institutions, 10
 - responses, organizations, 7–10
 - social policies, 10
- dropping social fig leaf, 'new start', 2005
- labour market and welfare reform, 16
- market liberalization, 15
- mid-term review process, Lisbon
 - Council, 14–15
- neoliberal restructuring, 16
- political preferences, 15–16
- UNICE and CEEP, 16–17
- infatuation, 25–28
- integration, 6
- paradigm shift/continuity
 - EPP, 18
 - joint statement, 19–20
 - language, 17
 - macro-economic policies, 19
 - responses, ETUC, 18–19
 - rhetorical innovation, 17
 - stability and growth pact, public finances, 17–18
- technocratic market-making and
 - 'democratic deficit'
- anti-social and democratic regime, 25
- common market and economic
 - integration, 20
- economic rights and social
 - protections, 22
- erosion of social constraints, 20
- European Court of Justice (ECJ), 22–23
- multinational capitalist interests, 21
- neoliberal project, 24
- Open Method of Coordination (OMC), 24
- re-commodification labour, 23
- restrictions, 21–22

Social Action Programme, 23

Transnational migrant care workers

- domestic labour, 69
- feminization of migration
 - developed and developing countries, 64–65
 - economy, domestic labour, 64
 - gender inequalities, 63
 - increases, 64
 - remittances, 64
- global care chains, 65–66
- individuals, 69
- policy discourse, 69
- public policy and law
 - employment, 66
 - ILO, 67
 - international care markets, 68
 - women migration, 66–67
 - work family balance, 67–68

Transnational temporary agency work (TAW)

- demands, 184
- description, 179
- directives, 178
- equalizing working conditions, host country, 178
- equal treatment (see Equal pay/equal treatment principle, agency workers)
- legal employer, 178
- legal instruments
 - basic conditions, 188–189
 - provision of services and free movement of workers, 186–187
 - PWD, 187–188
 - relationship, PWD and Agency Work Directive, 190
- objectives, 184–185
- perspectives, 197

- structure, contractual relationships, 179–181
- unequal working conditions (see Unequal working conditions, TAW)

U

Unequal working conditions, TAW

- description, 181–182
- duration of assignments, 182–183
- lack of employment stability, 183–184
- risk of dismissal, 182
- wages, 183
- young workers, 182

W

Work Choices Act, 134

Work-family reconciliation, 61–62

Working time regulation

- Anti-Crisis Act, 422
- economic crisis, 422
- EU Member States, 422–423
- gender and long hours work, 439–441
- living standards and equality
 - gender, 424
 - inequalities, 424–425
 - maintenance of, 424
 - market economy, 1990s, 426–427
 - organization, work time, 423–424
 - post-Second World War Europe, 425–426
 - women's employment, 427–428
 - work-family reconciliation policies, 428
- long working hours, Poland, 421–422
- post-transition period, Poland (see Poland)
- reduction, 422

WorkLife Law, 55

Workplace/workforce mismatch, 55–56, 62