

Subject Index

A

Agency work in Namibia and South Africa distribution of wealth and power, 51 employment policy, 50
EU flexicurity policy, 53–54 flexible working arrangements, 52 global trends and policies, 52
ILO and EU agency work instruments, 54–57
Kahn-Freund's formulation, 53 labour law and decent work agenda, 50–53
'labour market regulation' approach, 51
'one-size-fits-all' approach, 65 social justice, 51
unemployment rates, 51–52

B

Bangladesh garment industry
CSR, 7–9
ethical marketing devices, 23
fire and building safety implementation and compliance mechanisms, 19–20
initiatives, improve working conditions, 15, 16
legality and legitimacy, 17–19
Rana Plaza collapse, 16 safety inspections, 17

implementation and compliance
mechanisms, 13–15
legality, 10–11
legitimacy, 11–13
MNCs, 6, 17
NGOs, 6
traditional command-and-control
mechanisms, 24
Rana Plaza collapse, 5, 23
TPR, 7–9
trade union, 6
Worker Safety Initiative, 6 factory improvements, 21
implementation and compliance
mechanisms, 22–23
individual CSR efforts, 20
legality and legitimacy, 21–22

C

CAP. See Common Agricultural Policy (CAP)
CJEU. See Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) Collective Action in France, Belgium, Italy and Spain
'anomalous' strikes, 278 collective labour conflict/strikes, 277 comparative analysis, 290
Constitutional Court, 278
constitutional safeguards, 277, 278 definition of strikes, 276

- essential services, 274
- juridical status, 274–276
- national legal traditions, 273
- ‘parity-of-loss’ rule, 278
- substantial and procedural dimension, 274
- unlawful strikes
  - CJEU, 279
  - Constitutional Court, 280, 281
  - employment-related claim, 279
  - Italian government, 281
  - lack of legal regulation, 280
  - landmark decision, 280
  - liability of individual employees, 288–289
  - preventing damages, 289–290
  - procedural requirements, 281–284
  - trade union liability, 285–288
- Collective action in Nordic countries and Germany
  - Co-Determination Act, 263–264
  - foundations, 254
  - historical evolution
    - constitutional dimension, 256–257
    - industrial revolution, 254
    - trade unions and employer organizations, 255
  - interim injunctions, 269–270
  - legal definition, 257–258
  - liability of individual employee, 267–268
  - liability of the organization
    - claim for damages, 264
    - Danish Labour Law, 265
    - economic remedies, 267
    - Finland, 266
    - section 31 or 831 BGB trade unions, 265
    - Sweden, 266–267
    - trade union, 266
  - mediation procedures, 263
  - national systems, 270–271
  - peace obligation, 259–261
  - principle of Danish law, 259
  - procedural restrictions, 263
  - solidarity actions, 261–262
  - working and economic conditions, 259
- Collective Agreements Act, 485–486, 493, 498, 500
- Collective bargaining for self-employed workers
  - Australia and Canada
    - cleaning contractors, 236
    - competitor businesses, 229
    - conduct of bargaining, 237–239
    - dependent contractors, 225–226
    - entrepreneurial businesses, 227–228
  - Fair Work Commission (FWC), 235
  - first contract arbitration, 239
  - free and voluntary negotiation, 231
  - freelance journalists, 228
  - general questions, 224
  - Home Childcare Providers Act, 236, 238, 241
  - independent contractors, 226–227
  - innovative schemes, 218–219
  - minimum labour standards, 232–233
  - potential impact, 231
  - pricing decisions, 234–235
  - public benefit, 230
  - Road Safety Remuneration Act 2012 (Cth) (RSR Act), 227, 229, 237
  - road transport industry, 227
  - sector-specific schemes, differences, 241–242
  - Status of the Artist (SOA) Act, 236–237
- boundaries of labour law regulation, 218
- contract of employment, 221
- contractual arrangements, 221–222
- counter-productive, 223

- economic and social interests, 217
  - heterogeneous nature, 222–223
  - ILO freedom of association
    - Conventions, 219–220, 240
  - legislative intervention, 220–221
  - minimum standards legislation, 222
  - non-contracting third party, 241
  - principles of freedom of association, 219
  - restriction of access, 221
  - Common Agricultural Policy (CAP)
    - embedding respect for employment rights
      - agricultural products, 146
      - cross-compliance, 147
      - employment promotion, 149
      - farming community, 147–148
    - Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), 150
    - occupational safety and health (OSH), 149–150
    - Single Farm Payment (SFP), 147
    - social concerns, 146
  - employment in primary agricultural production
    - bilateral agreements, 134
    - commercialization and industrialization, 132–133
    - EU citizens, 133–134
    - labour “shortages”, 135
    - temporary seasonal workers, 133
  - Seasonal Workers Directive
    - adoption of legislative, 140
    - Commission’s Impact Assessment, 141
    - employment contract, 142
    - equal treatment principle, 143–144
    - European Parliament, 142
    - governance structure and policy
      - outputs, 140
    - immigration law, 140
    - low-skilled workers, 132, 141
    - NGOs, 143
    - Sanctions Directive, 145
    - Single Permit Directive, 141
    - social dimension, 142–143
    - sub-contractors, 144
    - UK Migrant Rights Network, 145
  - social conditionality, 151–152
  - violations of employment rights, 131
  - working conditions
    - flexibility, 136–137
    - job security, 137
    - legal protections, 139
    - nature of employment, 136
    - opportunities, 135–136
    - precarious work, 137–138
    - strawberry pickers, 138
    - violations of workers’ rights, 138
  - Corporate social responsibility (CSR)
    - ethical marketing devices, 9
    - EU bilateral agreements, 38
    - implementation and compliance mechanisms, 13–15
    - initiatives, 8
    - legality, 10–11
    - legitimacy, 11–13
    - MNCs, 8
    - NGO, 8
    - social and environmental impact, 7
  - Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU)
    - Laval and Viking, 90
    - paternalistic approach, 96
    - ‘social compass’, 89
    - wage dumping, 90
  - CSR. See Corporate social responsibility (CSR)
- D
- Danish hospital ward (Health-DkB), 113–116, 119
  - Danish schools (School-DkA), 114–116, 119

E

ECHR. See European Court of Human Rights (ECHR)

Employer-centred benefits and the atypical workforce annual leave, 79–81

maternity benefits, 69–71

retirement pensions, 72–75

severance pay, 82–84

sickness benefits, 76–79

Employer's perspective, 82

Employment Contracts Act, 484, 485, 490, 491, 498

Estonian collective agreements bargaining system, 493–494

changing the regulation of extension CJEU, 496

Collective Agreements Act, 498

condition applies, 497

European social partners, 498

freedom of enterprise, 496

ILO Convention 144 Article 1, 496

ILO Recommendation 1951 91, Article 5(1), 495

labour market changes, 498

members and non-members, 494

precondition, 497

representativeness, 499

restrictions, 498, 499

state-level, 497

Collective Agreements Act, 485–486, 499

company-level, 493

democratic and participatory processes, 484

Employees' Representation Act, 491

Employment Contracts Act, 484, 485, 490–491

enterprise-level, 492

ILO Committee on Freedom of Association, 487

ILO Recommendation 91, Article III 4, 490 industry-level to company-level, 483

joint agreement, 489–490

Labour Codes, 493

labour law developments, 486

legal case issue, 488

legal regulation, 486

quantitative requirements, 489

representativeness, 490, 491, 500

sectoral trade union, 492

social partners, 487–488

votes cast, 494

EU Labour rights and European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)

Charter of Fundamental Rights (CFR)

Article 52, 163–164

restrictions, 164

Charter's provisions, Article 51, 162

collective labour rights

Alemo-Herron v. Parkwood Leisure Ltd, 169

AMS v. CGT, 168–169

dynamic protection, 173

economic freedoms, 171–172

protection, 168

right to freedom, 170

strike action, 170–171

constitutionalization

CFR, 160

difficulties, 157–158

divergences in national laws, 160–161

economic entity, 159

ESC's monitoring system, 160

Fudge's definition, 157

prohibition of discrimination, 159

protection levels, 157

social rights, 158–159

Court of Justice of the EU (CJEU)

collective labour rights, 168–173

constitutional status, 155–156

non-discrimination in employment, 165–168
     prohibition of discrimination, 165
 development, 154
 European Social Charter (ESC), 154–155
 fundamental social rights, 161
 ILO Conventions, 161 scope and nature of right, 174
 European Court of Human Rights
     (ECHR)
     Federation of Public Sector Trade Unions, 297
     Grand Chamber decision, 297 immense significance, 298 social rights' instruments and institutions, 296
 European Works Council (EWC), 470–473
 EU unlawful collective action economic sanctions
         CJEU explain, 244–245
         Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA), 247–248
         Courage and Manfredi, 245
         ILO, 248 limiting trade union liability, 246 2010 report, relation to Convention 87, 247, 248 shared competence, 245–246
         TFEU, 245, 246
     Laval and Viking judgments, 243 legal activism, 250
     Monti II regulation, 250–251 national solutions, 248–250
     ReMarkLab-programme, 243
 EWC. See European Works Council
     (EWC)

F

Free Trade Agreements (FTA), 29, 33, 39–42
 FTA. See Free Trade Agreements (FTA)

Fundamental social rights and EU external action
     free trade to fair trade CARIFORUM agreement, 41 definition of fairness, 41 foreign investment, 42
         ILO Decent Work Agenda, 39 international labour law, 41–42 non-economic arguments, 40 social dumping, 41
         Treaty of Lisbon, 40
         United Nations Charter and international law, 39 global market place economic phenomena, 28 labour law systems, 28 multilateral politico-economic system, 28 national social policies, 28 nation-state sovereignty and legality, 27 GSP (see Generalized system of preferences (GSP))
     horizontal social clause
         CSR, 38–39
         economic and trade policies, 35
         FTA, 33
         Open Method of Coordination (OMC), 36 social issues, 37
         TFEU, 34, 35
         Treaty of Lisbon, 35–36
         UN project, 37–38
         World Trade Organization (WTO), 33 international trade and human rights agreements, 30–31 business ethics, 32
         free trade and social rights, 29 fundamental principles, 29
         ILO Constitution Preamble, 29 insofar, 32
         ‘integrated approach’, 30

- NAALC model, 31
- organizations, 32
- 'legally binding' CSR clause, 47

G

- Generalized system of preferences (GSP)
  - EC Commission, 42
  - EEC granted general tariff, 42
  - infringed human rights, 44
  - labour standards conditionality, 43–44
  - special incentive arrangements, 43
  - withdrawal, 44–45
- Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 187
- GRI. See Global Reporting Initiative (GRI)
- GSP. See Generalized system of preferences (GSP)

H

- High-performance workplace systems (HPWS), 105–106, 109
- HPWS. See High-performance workplace systems (HPWS)
- Human rights at work
  - company codes of conduct
    - Coca Cola Company, 188–189
    - 1998 ILO Declaration, 188
  - international framework agreement (IFA), 190
  - public relations, 189
  - regulatory attention, 188
  - self-policing, 189
- globalization and workers' rights, 176–177
- hard and soft law approaches, 196
- 2012 ILC Employers' position, 196–197
- ILO's CEACR
  - Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA), 194–195
  - Committee on the Application of Standards (CAS), 194
  - Employers' group, 195

- UN's Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC), 193
- International Labour Organization (ILO)
  - 1998 Declaration, 179–180
  - fundamental values, 178–179
  - International Labour Office, 178
- labour standards, 177–178
- regional bodies
  - Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU), 191–192
  - European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), 190–191
  - European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), 191
  - ILO jurisprudence, 192–193
- UN Global Compact (UNGC) and labour
  - coverage, 182
  - and ILO, 183
  - principles, 181–182
  - reporting, 182–183
  - World Economic Forum, 180–181
- UN Guiding Principles, corporate responsibility, 183–185
- voluntary inspection and reporting, 186–187

I

- ICCPR. See International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR)
- ICLS. See International Conference of Labour Statisticians (ICLS)
- ILO. See International Labour Organization (ILO)
- ILS. See International Labour Standards (ILS)
- Informal economy and ILO
  - development, 396
  - formalization
    - employers' interest, 407
    - employers' suggestion, 405–406
    - fundamental conventions, 409

- governing body, 406–407
- human rights, 409
- ITUC and IOE, 408
- global development debates, 392
- ICLS, 398
- ILS, 398–400
- international labour conference, 396–398
- legal perspective
  - definition, 401
  - formalization, 404–405
  - national level, 402
  - non-application, 403–404
  - social security, 403
  - tax evasion, 403
- policy issues, 393
- political circumstances, 411
- problem, 392
- recommendations
  - legal obligations, 394
  - national legislation, 395
  - organization's decisions, 394
- universal social protection, 410
- International Conference of Labour Statisticians (ICLS), 398
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), 359
- International Labour Organization (ILO)
  - Decent Work agenda, 2, 38, 39
  - Declaration of Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, 52
  - and EU agency work instruments, 54–57
  - and NGOs, 6, 22
  - social justice and human rights, 29
  - WTO, 33
- International Labour Standards (ILS), 398–400
- Internationally recognized right to strike
  - Battle Commences, 371
  - CEACR, 375
  - CJEU, 358
  - Cold War, 373
  - employers' claims, 372
  - entitlement arises, 372
  - EU and domestic remedies, 361
  - EUCFR, 378
  - European Court of Human Rights, 361
  - European strike law, 358
  - extensive forms, 378
  - fundamental rights, 359, 360
  - ICCPR, 359
  - ILO and council of europe jurisprudence
    - balloting/notice requirements, 364
  - BALPA, 367, 368
  - CEACR, 362, 364, 368, 369
  - CFA, 363, 364
  - Demir and Baykara judgment, 367
  - European Court of Human Rights, 365
  - 'integrated approach', 367
  - slower and clumsier method, 365
  - spontaneous strike action and picketing, 366
  - Swedish trade unions, 370
- ILO supervisory system, 375
- International Court of Justice, 374
- International Labour Conference, 374
- International Trade Union Confederation, 377
- legal and political challenges, 361
- UK Government, 375, 376
- International Organization for Employers (IOE), 407–408
- International Organization for Standardization (IOS), 187
- International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC), 408
- IOE. See International Organization for Employers (IOE)
- ITUC. See International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC)

J

JCCs. See Joint consultative committees (JCCs)

Joint consultative committees (JCCs), 106, 110

K

Kay's theory, 92

L

Labour hire, 58, 59

Labour law and triangular employment growth contractual relationships, 414 employer status, 415

labour process, 414–415

NAPEO, 416

PEOs, 416

qualitative types, services generation, 417

regulatory differentials

contingent, 429–430

de jure employer status, 424–425

employment agency, 424

formal, 427–429

informal, 430–432

legal configurations and enforcement practices, 427

minimum wage, 426

'shifting' employer status, 424

temporary help services, 424

service bundles, 415–416

staffing industry services, 413

subcontracting arrangements, 415

theoretical explanations behavioural effects, 423

de jure employer status, 419

diversification of employment risk, 418 economies of scale and an improved 'division of labour',

417–418

flexibility, 418

labour policy, 421

legal/institutional arrangements, 419

market failures, 420

'matching' improvements, 418 production and self-governance, workplace, 422–423 social exploitation and wealth production, 421–422

temporary help services, 417–418

transactions costs, 420

Laval and trade union cooperation

Belgian trade unions, 103

CJEU, 88, 90

conditions, 88

crisis and request, 98–101

cross-border union interaction, 91

interviews with union officials, 92–93

Kay's theory, 92

marginal issues, 102

mobilization outcomes, 103–104

protection of posted workers, 87

PWD, 87, 90

socio-legal standpoint, 92

Swedish trade unions, 103

tactics to restore trade union rights, 96–98

transnational trust and mistrust, 94–96 wage and social dumping, 102 wage costs and labour standards, 89 workers' rights, 89

Legal transnationalism, 92

Lock-in patterns among employees age and health, 458

Albert Hirschman's distinction, 438

business cycles, 438

data and methodological approach, 441–443 education, 441

empirical analyses employees in Finland, Norway and Sweden, 444–445, 449–451

health, 446

- labour market situation, 444, 451–455
  - logistic regression, 446–449
  - men and women in Finland and Norway, 445–446
  - Norwegian respondents, workplace/employer, 445
  - perception of age, 456
  - socioeconomic category, 446
  - employment security, 437
  - factors, 436
  - family obligations, 440
  - family situation, 458
  - Harmonized unemployment, 438
  - individual dissatisfaction, 437
  - individual factors, 439
  - Nordic countries, 435–436
  - obstacles, labour market situation, 457
  - OECD survey, 439
  - older workers, 457
  - over-optimistic and over-pessimistic, 437–438
  - people in poor health, 441
  - substantial difficulties, 456
  - Swedish debate, 436
  - theoretical issues and research, 436
  - trial-and-error nature, 440
  - worker's situation, 435
  - workplace/occupation, 436–437
  - younger workers, 440
- M
- MNCs. See Multinational corporations (MNCs)
  - Multinational corporations (MNCs)
    - Alliance members, 22
    - Bangladeshi RMG-Industry, 21
    - CSR and TPR, 7
    - description, 6, 23
    - steering committee, 18
    - and trade unions, 11

N

- NAALC. See North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation (NAALC)
- Namibia
  - Africa Personnel Services, 59, 60
  - Bill of Rights, 57
  - Employment Service Act 2011, 59, 60
  - EU Agency Directive 2008, 61
  - ILO's Agencies Convention 1997, 57
  - joint-decision making, 66
  - Labour Act 2007, 59
  - Labour Amendment Act 2012, 60
  - labour hire, 58
  - Namibian Constitution, 59–60
  - Namibian Labour Act 1992, 58
  - non-standard jobs, 58
  - private employment agencies, 61
  - socio-political contexts, 57–58
- NAPEO. See National Association of Professional Employer Organizations (NAPEO)
- National Association of Professional Employer Organizations (NAPEO), 416, 418, 419
- National Labour Relations Act (NLRA), 345–347
- New Zealand hotels (Hotel-NZA), 113, 115, 116, 119, 120
- New Zealand school (School-NZB) ranks, 114–116, 119, 120122
- NGO. See Non-governmental organization (NGO)
- NLRA. See National Labour Relations Act (NLRA)
- Non-governmental organization (NGO), 6, 8, 18, 22
- North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation (NAALC), 31, 32

O

- Occupational health and safety (OHS) committees, 106, 108, 110 physical risks and hazards at work, 106 problems, 107

Work Environment Act 1975, 110
OHS. See Occupational health and safety
(OHS)

P

PEOs. See Professional Employer Organizations (PEOs)
Polycentric strike law
ECHR, 293, 296–298
EU
Charter of Fundamental Rights, 294 fundamental market freedoms, 294, 296 home-state workers, 295
International Transport Workers Federation, 295 international union agreements, 296
‘worker protection’ justification, 295 legal practice, 294 organization of legal protection ballot and notice requirements, 305–308
industrial action, 302–303 statute removes immunity, 304
torts with immunity, 303
trade dispute, 303–304
regeneration of existing sites, 298–300 remedies and sanctions against the union
interim injunctions, 309–310
liability, 310–311
social practice, 293–294
UK BALPA dispute on freedom of establishment, 313–315
Demir, judiciary and legislature revisited, 315

disputes and unions, 293 economic torts, 301 employee’s contract, 300 governmental resistance, 317–318 interpretative mode, 316 judicial resistance, 315–316
laval, 311–312 legislative efforts, 300 substantive restrictions, 317
TDA, 301, 302
trade dispute, 301, 302
Posting of workers directive (PWD), 90, 94, 96–97
Professional Employer Organizations
(PEOs), 416, 419, 420
PWD. See Posting of workers directive
(PWD)

Q

Quality of the work environment
(QWE)
Danish workplace, 113–114 democratic participation model, 124–125
direct participation, 107, 115–117 effectiveness, 107
employee participation, 108–109 employees feeling, 122–123 environment and cooperation committee, 121–122
food manufacturing and schools, 114–115
hospital and hotel sectors, 118
Hotel-DkA and Food-DkA, 119
HPWS, 105–106
HRM workplace types, 121, 125, 126 human resource management, 106 indirect/representative participation, 106 industry level, 123–124
national context, participation, 110–111
participation models, 117–118, 121

physical, social and organizational, 106 rank orders for DP, 120 regulatory/cultural framework, 123 representative participation, 107 research design and methodology degrees and forms of participation, 111 measurement, 112–113
   multi-method case study approach, 111 organizational sources, 111–112
 School-DkA and Health-DkA, 119
 School-NZA, 122
 School-NZB, 115
 scores and ranks, DP index, 118, 119
 synchronous growth, 106–107
 QWE. See Quality of the work environment (QWE)

S

SAI. See Social Accountability
   International (SAI)
 Social Accountability International (SAI), 186
 South Africa agency-user-worker relationship, 63
   Bill of Rights, 57
   Employment Services Bill, 64
   ILO Country Review 106, 62
   ILO's Agencies Convention 1997, 57
   joint-decision making, 66
   labour brokers, 61
   Labour Relations Act 1956, 61
   non-standard work, 64 post-apartheid labour policy, 61 regulated flexibility, 62
   Regulatory Impact Assessment Report, 63
   social partners, 63
   socio-political contexts, 57–58 temporary employment service, 62 Strike-related violence assumption of orderliness, 202 collective bargaining, 201–202 compensation and damages, 206 criminal prosecution for contempt of court, 204–206

 good-faith and bad faith negotiations, 215 interdict/injunction, 203–204
 Labour Relations Act 66 of 1995
   (LRA), 200, 208
 legal mechanisms, 216 mine management, 215 misconduct, 202–203
 mob theory
   The Crowd, 213–214 democratic elections, 212–213 railway workers, 213 social identity, 214–215
 National Economic Development and Labour Council (NEDLAC), 200 police or army control, 210–211 prosecution for criminal offences, 209–210
 psychological insights, 212 withdrawal of protection, 206–209
 Strikes in Poland, Hungary and Slovakia collective action, 322–323 collective dispute, 323–324 forms of strike action, 333–334 legal framework, 320–322 Polish legal system, 320 procedures, 323
   procedures to establish the legality, 334 sanctions damages and criminal liability, 334–336
     liability of individual employees, 336–337
   stages of collective disputes arbitration, 326–327 mediation, 325–326
     negotiations/conciliation, 325 notice, 324

restrictions in statutory and case law, 329–333
strike action, 328–329

T

TDA. See Trade Disputes Act (TDA)
Temporary Agency Work, 55–56
Temporary Employment Services, 62 TFEU. See Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) Thirtieth anniversary of International Journal of Comparative Labour Law and Industrial Relation agreement, 383
developing policy and determination, 388 editorship, 386–387 guidance, 389
human rights, 387
International Advisory Board, 384
national systems, 383
publication, 385–386 regulation, 388
‘working meeting’, 384
TPR. See Transnational private regulation
(TPR)
Trade Disputes Act (TDA), 301, 302
Transnational private regulation (TPR) and CSR (see Corporate social responsibility (CSR))
description, 7
private actors, 23
Transnational Trade Union Cooperation, 88, 98, 101
Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU)
CJEU, 244
EU competences, 246
European integration, 34 social clauses, 34–36 trade unions, 245
Viking and Laval, 249

U

U.S. perspective on unfair labor practices American aversion to punitive damages
collective bargaining, 354–355
“Danbury Hatters”, 352–353 economic strikes, 348, 349
Labour Management Relations Act, 351
“national emergency”, 349
NLRA, 345–347
punitive damages, 346, 347
Sherman Act, 352 violations, 350
Federal labor law, 341
punitive damages, 341, 356
self-regulating market, 339–340
Sweden’s labor court
CJEU, 343
labour market organizations, 344 Latvian law, 342
market freedoms, 345
“principle of effectiveness”, 344
Swedish Building Workers’ Union, 343
Swedish Laval decision, 341, 355, 356

W

Wage dumping, 90, 101–103
Worker participation British industrial relations system conflict-based participation, 476–477
dual-channel representation, 477–478
employee-shareholder status, 478–479
company power structure, 479–481
definition, 459
German co-determination system decision-making process, 463
economic matters, 464 employers’ fears, 465

- minority employee, Supervisory
  - Board, 464–465
- origins, 461
- personnel matters, 463–464
- ‘quasi-parity’, 466
- rationales, 466–469
- social matters, 463
- ‘two-tier’ governance structure, 464
- works councils, 462
- Italian Act 92/2012
  - conflictual participation, 474–475
  - participation in management and financial, 475–476
  - workers right to cooperate, 473–474
- national models, 460
- ‘weak(er)’ and negotiable European model
  - Biedenkopf Report, 470
  - decision-making process, 469
  - European Commission, 470
  - EWG, 470–473