

Subject Index

A

Acquired Rights Directive (ARD), 248
Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration
Service (ACAS), 27–28
African, Caribbean and Pacific (ACP),
306–307, 311
African Growth Opportunity Act
(AGOA), 311
Australian Council of Trade Unions
(ACTU), 18
Australian Human Rights Commission's conciliation process, 38

B

Binational German-Polish migrants, 376

C

Centre for the Analysis of Regional Integration at Sussex (CARIS), 288
Committee on the Application of Standards (CAS), 294
Comprehensive Economic and Trade
Agreement (CETA), 307
Construction sector, Dutch. See also Posted migrant workers, Dutch economic vulnerability, rights and entitlements, 382–383 large-scale construction projects, 381 social vulnerability, housing arrangements, 381–382
trade union protection, 383–384

Core Labour Standards (CLS), 268
Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR), 269
Culture of tolerance controversial issues, 71
doctrinal absolutism, 73
moral pluralism, 72–73 pillarization, 71–72

D

Danish Confederation of Trade Unions,
247
Direct discrimination, 57–58
Disability Discrimination Act 1995
(DDA), 96–97
Disability discrimination at work comparison, 108–110 employment and occupation, 92 individual rights, EU-regulation and national labour markets, 93
national social attitudes and methods, 92 protection against workplace, in Denmark
administrative Board of Equal Treatment, 104–105
1996 Anti-Discrimination Act, 102
2004 Anti-Discrimination Act, 103 collective agreements, 101–102 constitutional monarchy and State powers, 101

- equality model of EU, 107
- Jette Ring and Skouboe Werge* in 2013, 106
- liberal and inclusive terminology, 108
- social legislation, 103
- protection against workplace discrimination in UK
  - DDA, 96–97
  - domestic and EU legislation, 96
  - Equality Act 2010, 98–100
  - Equal Opportunities Commission, 97
  - gold-plating implementation, 96
  - legislation, 100
  - pre-employment health checks, 100
- Dutch Working Time Adjustment Act (2000), 121
- E
- Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS), 310
- Economic crisis and labour law reform in Italy
  - anti-crisis legislation, 193–194
  - domestic social policies, 189–192
  - Fornero reform of labour market, 194–195
  - GDP in EU Member States, 188
  - Growth and Stability Pact, 187–188
  - Jobs Act of Renzi government, 195–197
  - labour market, 197–199
  - public national policies, 188
  - Welfare protocol of 2007, 193
  - ‘welfare to work’ and flexibility, 192–193
- Economic Partnership Agreement (EPA)
  - ACP countries, 311
  - development criteria, indicators and measurement, 316–318
  - EU Raw Materials Initiative, 313
  - Market Access Resolution 1528/2007, 314
- Economic Vulnerability Index, 309–310
- Employment discrimination complaints
  - anti-discrimination agencies, 28
  - anti-discrimination bodies
    - court/tribunal proceedings, 34
    - Employment Tribunal, 35–36
    - Equality and Human Rights Commission, 35, 36
    - Fair Work Ombudsman, 34–37
    - use of litigation, 33
  - Australian and UK jurisdictions, 28
  - Australian labour law, 31
  - balancing guidance, ADR and enforcement
    - agency engagement, 44
    - Fair Work Commission, 42–43
    - Fair Work Ombudsman, 43–44
    - legal advice and representation, 41
    - underpayment of wages and entitlement, 45
  - discrimination/employment matters, 30
  - Donovan Commission in 1968, recommendations, 32
  - FairWork Act 2009, 31
  - federal anti-discrimination laws, 28
  - federal anti-discrimination legislation, 32–33
  - gatekeeping function, mandatory ADR
    - ACAS conciliation process, 40
    - arbitration, 37
    - Australian Human Rights Commission’s conciliation process, 38
    - Dispute Resolution Regulations* 2004, 39
    - dispute resolution systems, 40
    - Employment Act 2002, 39
    - Employment Tribunal processes, rules and fee structures, 39

- industrial disputes, 37
  - tribunal proceedings, 38
- institutional processes, industrial tribunals, 30
- mandatory ADR precursor, 27
- minimum wages and award safety-net provisions, 30–31
- practitioners, 31–32
- public awareness and group empowerment, 29
- Equality Act 2010, 98–100
- Equal Opportunities Commission, 97
- European Trade Union Confederation (ETUC), 260–261, 296
- European Union (EU) part-time and fixed-term directives
  - comparability, 61–62
  - concrete and specific provisions, 47
  - discrimination law
    - common denominators, 51–53
    - and subordination, 53–54
  - grounds for unequal treatment, 62–64
  - labour law and law's deep structure
    - critical legal positivism, 49
    - employee subordination, 50
    - Ewald's analysis, 50
    - individual autonomy and voluntary relationships, 49
    - social law, 50
  - legal development, 48
  - non-discrimination law
    - Carratu*, national legislation, 60
    - direct discrimination, 57–58
    - Gavieiro Gavieiro & Torres*, 59
    - indirect discrimination, 56–57
    - legal professionals, EU legislative process, 55
    - legal restrictions, 65–66
    - Nierodzik*, national rules, 60
    - unequal treatment, 58
    - zero-hours contracts, Wippel case, 59

F

- Finnish Seamen's Union (FSU), 255
- Fixed-Term Employees Regulations (FTER), 217
- Fixed-term employment contracts
  - CJEU case law, 208
  - European social partners, 207
  - Finnish law, 216–217
  - Framework Agreement on
    - legal measures, 209
    - Member States, 214–215
    - successive fixed-term contracts and interpretation, 209–211
  - French law, 220–223
  - legal comparison, 224–227
  - UK law, 217–219
- Foreign Direct Investment (FDI), 307, 474, 476, 493–494
- Fornero labour market reform, 194–195

G

- Gender equality
  - decent work
    - ACTU, 18
    - Dutch trade unionist, 16
    - DWA's value, 17
    - employer representatives, 16
    - expansive aspirational and social justice framing, ILO, 15
    - interviewees' representations and opinions, ILO, 15
    - ITUC, 18
    - UK trade unionists, 17
  - dominant male full-time permanent job paradigm, 5
  - and DWA
    - activities, 10–11
    - Australia and Netherlands, 12
    - definition, 7–8
    - female employment participation, 10
    - ILC agenda, 8

- 2006–2009 independent evaluation, 11
  - international, regional and national levels, 9
  - key policy actor/stakeholder groups, 12
  - legitimacy, 10
  - low-wage earners, 11
  - organization of work and regulation, 9
  - policy actor group, interviewees, 12, 13
  - societal arrangements, 13
  - DWA endorsement, 6–7
  - employment regulation, 7
  - and engagement with, decent work
    - narrow concern, 19–20
    - systemic concern, 20–23
  - ILO declaration, 6
  - perceptions of and engagement with, 14–15
  - personal development and social integration, 6
  - General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 476, 479, 481–483
  - General Equal Treatment Act (AWGB), 84
  - Generalized System of Preferences (GSP)
    - benefits, European Commission, 287
    - CARIS, 288
    - ILO, 286
    - labour rights violators, 286
    - in practice, 296–303
    - preferential market access, 285
    - regulation, 288
    - social dialogue and cooperative mechanisms, 286
  - German constitutional patriotism
    - constitutional integrity and protection of human rights, 74
    - constitutional principle of equality, 74
    - employment non-discrimination law, 75
    - national patriotism, 73
  - Global Approach to Migration (GAM), 332
  - Global Approach to Migration and Mobility (GAMM), 332
  - Grey area, labour market. See also Road haulage industry, Sweden; Swedish construction industry
    - controversies, 429
    - genuine/independent self-employment, 412
    - long-term productivity, 428
    - migrant workers, 412
    - post-war perspective
      - commercial contract, 413
      - crisis of Fordism, 415
      - fixed-term and part-time contracts, 414
      - legal and social protection, 416
      - OECD countries, 415
      - organized labour relations, 414
    - reforms and risks, 416–417
    - self-employed persons, 411
    - self-employment, 353
    - subordinate/dependent employment, 412
- H
- Haitian Hemispheric Opportunity through Partnership Encouragement Act (HOPE Act), 172
  - Haiti Economic Lift Program Act of 2010 (HELP Act), 172
  - Human Resource Index, 309
  - Hyper-dependence
    - contractual relations, categories of, 146
    - economic dependence, 145–146
    - employer's sponsorship under TMWPs, 146
    - extreme socioeconomic dependence, 146
    - labour mobility, 146–147

legal characterization of employees, 145 unfreedom in migrants' work, 147
 Hyper-dependent precarity (HDP) employer/labour user, 150 entry costs, 151
     individual and collective, formal and informal channels, 152
     legal pressures, 150 voice and exit trade-offs, 150
 Hyper-precious dependence (HPD).
     See Hyper-dependent precarity
         (HDP)
 Hyper-precarity
     employment and social protections, 147 intermediated work relations, 149
     membership fees, 148–149
     precarious migrant status, 148
     private agencies and intermediaries, 149
     sponsor and/or the sponsor's support, 150 sponsored work permits and visas, 147 trade union activities, 148

I

ILO supervisory system
     CAS, 294
     Commission of Inquiry, 295
     Committee of Experts, 294, 296
     Right to Freedom of Association, 295
 Indirect discrimination, 56–57
 International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), 152
 International Covenant on Economic,
     Social and Cultural Rights
     (ICESCR), 152
 International human rights and temporary migrant workers human rights instruments, 156
     ICCPR and ICESCR, 152
     ICPRMW, 153, 155

    ILO's, 152–154
     sovereign domain of states, 156
 International Labour Organization
     (ILO), 244, 268, 286
 International Trade Union Confederation
     (ITUC), 18, 296
 International Transport Workers
     Federation (ITF), 256
 Investor-to-State Dispute Settlement
     (ISDS), 475, 490

L

Labour exploitation. See also Seasonal Workers Directive (SWD)
     academic debates, 435 consent, 437–439
     contract/agreement, 437 and human trafficking, 433–435
     legal approaches criminal law approach, 441
         human trafficking, 440
         socioeconomic trends, 442
         victimization, 441
     vulnerability approach, 435, 439–440
 Labour market
     CIPD, case studies, 360
     cross-border migration, 361
     EuroCiett and UNI-Europa reports, 361 gate-keeping role, 360, 361
     immigrant agents, 359
     migration dynamics, 359
 Labour provisions
     Civil Society Forum, 271–272 cooperative and non-binding, 269 experimentalist governance, 270–271
     'hard' sanctions-based approach, 270 non-enforceable dispute settlement provisions, 270
     non-trade issues, 274
     rejection of protectionism, 274–278 social clauses, 273–274
     social trade, 278–282

- trade-labour linkage
  - CARIFORUM agreement, 265
  - CSR, 269
  - EU trade agreements, 265–267
  - EuroMed agreements, 268
  - government consultations, 268
  - judicialization of, 268
- trade union representatives, 271

M

- Macroeconomic Imbalances Procedure (MIP), 189
- Meat processing sector
  - economic vulnerability, rights and entitlements, 386–387
  - Netherlands-based agency contracts, 384
  - social vulnerability, housing arrangements, 385–386
  - trade union protection, 387–388
- Migrant work relations
  - international and supranational frameworks, 143
  - labour law and immigration law, 142
  - migrant status, 144–145
  - precarious work, 144
  - rights versus numbers' trade-off, 143
  - structure and organization of, 141
  - TMWPs, 142
  - unfree labour, trafficking and migrant exploitation, 157–160
- Migration and sustainable development in the EU
  - development and circular migration, 342–343
  - equal treatment and enforcement, 343–346
  - EU'S increasing competence over immigration, 335–336
  - GAM and GAMM, 332
  - general/labour rights and standards, 331
  - migrants, types of, 338

- migration/development nexus and circular migration, 333–334
- mobility partnerships, 338–339
- national laws and EU's
  - anti-discrimination law, 341
- pillars of, GAMM, 339–340
- policy plan for economic migration, 337
- Policy Plan on Legal Migration, 338
- priority actions, 337
- seasonal workers directive
  - economic and social exploitation, 342
  - migration and mobility, 341
- Seasonal Workers Directive, 333
- 1999 Tampere European Council, 336
- UN and ILO, 332

N

- North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation (NAALC), 165, 475, 480
- North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 165, 477

P

- Policy coherence for development (PCD)
  - policy conflicts between trade and development objectives, 318
  - trade-and-development nexus, 318
- Population ageing
  - Dutch Working Time Adjustment Act (2000), 121
  - governments, employers and individuals, 119
  - life-course approach, 121
  - older workers, 120
  - prime age workers, 119
  - working time, 120
- Posted migrant workers, Dutch. See also Construction sector, Dutch; Meat processing sector in Dutch cross-border recruitment, 389

 European market, 371
 housing arrangements, 388
 intra-company, 371
 method and data, 378–379
 national systems, 372
 Netherlands-based agency workers, 389 precarious posting
     Cremers, 374–375
     cross-border agency, 374 enforcement instruments, 375
     EU cross-border workers, 376
     immigration policies and migration, 376 intra-EU mobility, 377
     national labour regulations, 375
     Netherlands-based firms, 374
     Posting Directive, 374
     precariousness, 377
 qualitative interviews, 373 rights and entitlements, 388 socio-economic well-being, 372
 Precarious Work and Social Rights (PWSR) research project face-to-face interviews, 400 global economic crisis, 399
     second-country immigrants, 401 self-employment, false/bogus, 401 Pregnancy discrimination in National courts
     CJEU case law, 67, 68, 77–79
     culturally-informed comparative law method, 69
 Dutch approach
     AWGB, 84
     CJEU case law, expansion within,
         84–85
     constraining effect of, 85–87
 EU non-discrimination law
     Dutch culture of tolerance, 71–73
     German constitutional patriotism,
         73–75

    national background, 75–76
     Scandinavian/common law countries, 70
 European (political) integration, 69
 European Union (EU) human rights policy, 68
 German approach
     domestic legal context, 81–84
     national cases engaging with CJEU case law, 80–81
 national cultural and historical factors, 69

R

2012 Regulation
     labour rights criteria, 288–289
     review and withdrawal procedures general arrangement, 289–291
         special incentive arrangement
             (GSP+), 291–292
 Road haulage industry, Sweden cabotage regulations, 422 employment conditions, 424 individual labour contracts, 425 long-distance freight transport, 422 low-wage competition, 424
     social effects, 421
 Tax Agency, 423

S

Seasonal Workers Directive (SWD)
     accommodation, 447–448
     compensation, 449–450 exploitation (see also Labour exploitation)
         non-transparent mechanisms, 443
         social network, 443
         TCN migrant workers, 444
         temporary work agencies, 443
     information access, 447 labour rights, 446–447 temporary work agencies, 448
     third-country seasonal workers, 431

- Trafficking Directive, 445–446
- zero-option policy, Article 8(3), 450
- Self-employment, migrant workers in
  - EU
  - bankruptcy/financial difficulties, 408
  - bogus (definition), 392–394
  - CJEU ruling, 408–409
  - conservative welfare regimes, 409
  - FNV Kiem* case, 406
  - F-tax cards, 406
  - interviewees reports, 401–403
  - Latvian employer, 407
  - legal and industrial relations, 391
  - perceptions of precarious forms, 403–404
  - precarious work, 394–395
  - PWSR study, 399–401
  - research questions, 392
  - salaried employment relationship, 405
  - social protection, 405
  - social rights, 392
  - welfare systems, 409
- Social regionalism
  - contemporary global governance challenges, 163
  - Free Trade Agreement (FTA) structures, 164–165
  - historical, economic and legislative
    - CTMO-HOPE, 174
    - GATT/ WTO system, 171
    - HOPE Act, 172
    - HOPE II legislation, 172, 173
    - Inter-American Development Bank-financed Caracol, 173
    - TAICNAR programme, 173, 174
  - international solidarity in promotion of social and economic development, 167–168
  - labour dimensions, 166
  - minimum wage issues, 182–184
  - NAALC with NAFTA investment dimension, 165
  - parallel support to labour ministries, 169–170
  - promoting social dialogue, 180–181
  - ready-made garment sector in Haiti, 175–177
  - reforming labour law, 178–180
  - regional governance, 164
  - trade and labour linkage approach
    - distributive justice across borders, 166–167
    - original approach, 169
  - trade relationships and their contours, 164–165
- Sustainability Impact Assessment (SIA), 479–480
- Sustainability in European Union
  - Alemo-Herron v. Parkwood Leisure Centre*, 258–259
  - dynamic and participatory aspects, 245–246
  - economic, social and environmental, 243, 260
  - ETUC, 260–261
  - European Court of Human Rights, 254
  - information and
    - consultation/collective bargaining charter rights, 250–252
    - exemption to EU competition law, 252–253
    - personal workplace relations, 249
  - internal and external aspects, EU competence, 244–245
  - modernizing labour markets, 262
  - State Contracting Parties, 254
  - trade unions, role of
    - ARD, 248
    - CJEU, 248
    - ECtHR, 248
    - EU GSP Regulation, 249
    - European Trade Union Confederation, 247

- low-carbon greener European market, 247
  - NGOs and specific women's organizations, 246
  - policy-making on matters of sustainability, 246
  - UNISON v. UK*, 254–255
  - Viking*, protection of workers
    - flags of convenience policy, 257
    - FSU, 255
    - ITE, 256
  - Sustainable development chapters in FTA
    - EU–Korea Free Trade Agreement, 320
    - stakeholders, 321
    - trade liberalization proclamation, 320
  - SWD. See Seasonal Workers Directive (SWD)
  - Sweden's labour market. See also Grey area, labour market
    - cleaning, 425–427
    - construction industry, 418–421
    - road transportation, 421–425
  - Swedish construction industry
    - east–west labour migration, 419
    - foreign subcontractors, 418
    - labour market intermediaries, 420
    - self-employed craftsmen, 418
    - self-employed migrant, 419
- T
- 1999 Tampere European Council, 336
  - TCN. See Third-country national (TCN)
  - Technical Assistance Improvement and Compliance Needs Assessment and Remediation programme (TAICNAR), 172
  - Temporary Employment Agencies
    - asylum seekers, 363
    - contingent employment, 364
    - flexibility and reliability, 369
    - institutionalization, 369
    - migrants, labour market (see Labour market)
    - Migration Impact Fund, 363
    - occupational downgrading, 370
    - outcomes (associated)
      - occupational downgrading, 368
      - underutilization, 367
    - political and economic issue, 362
    - refugees and migrant workers, 363
    - strategies, migrant workers, 365–367
    - work for migrants, 364–365
  - Temporary Migrant Worker Programmes (TMWPs), 142
  - Temporary work agencies
    - multiple dependency, 448–449
  - Third-country national (TCN)
    - Dutch case law
      - students/workers, 465–467
      - trainees/workers, 467–469
    - EU migration law
      - Single Permit and Equal Rights Directive (2011/98/EU), 457
      - students, 457–459
      - students vs. trainees, 461–463
      - trainees, 459–461
    - fragmented and discretionary enforcement, Netherlands, 463–465
    - Intra-corporate transfer Directive, 461
    - legal statuses, 454
    - migration status, 454
    - reclassification, 454–456
    - trainees, 453–454
  - Trade embedded development models
    - ACP and EPAs, 306–307
    - EPA negotiations, 311–314
    - EU's trade policy
      - GSP reform, 309–311
      - trade liberalization, 309
    - FDI, 307
    - FTAs, 306
    - Global Europe strategy, 306
    - GSP, 306

- human rights
  - EU unwillingness, 323–325
  - investment promotion, 322–323
- policy conflicts, 307
- Singapore, 306
- social and environmental provisions, 305
- trade policies, legitimacy of, 321–322
- Trades Union Congress (TUC), 247
- Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP)
  - corporate social responsibility, 491–493
  - geographic labour mobility, 490–491
  - gold standard agreement, 494–495
  - incentives and sanctions, 486
  - individual and collective dimension, 487–489
  - labour market, 490–491
  - posting of workers, 490–491
  - public procurement, 490–491
  - social and economic value
    - Foreign Direct Investment (FDI), 474
    - General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 476
    - Generalized Scheme of Preferences (GSP) European model, 476
    - inter-normativity, 475
    - Investor-to-State Dispute Settlement (ISDS), 475
    - liberalization, 474
    - price-related dismantling, 474
  - social clause, 483–485
  - social rights, 486–487
  - sustainability
    - permanent monitoring, 480–481
    - social rights, 479
- theoretical coordinates
  - economic globalization, 476
  - non-mutual treatment, 479
  - North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 477

- post-Lisbon European architecture, 477
- social integration, 478
- sustainable development, 478
- Treaty on European Union (TEU), 244

U

- UK working time model, 138–139
- UN's International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (ICPRMW), 153

W

- Welfare protocol of 2007, 193
- Welfare State Regimes in the EU
  - decommodification, 396, 397
  - Esping-Andersen's arguments and definitions, 396
  - European Economic Community (EEC), 397
  - free-market liberalism, 397
  - supranational regulation, 399
  - Treaty of Amsterdam mitigation, 398
- West African Economic and Monetary Union (WAEMU), 310
- Working time regulation
  - data analysis, 134
  - demographic strategy, 131–132
  - demography-related collective agreements, 132
  - education-work-retirement lockstep, 130
  - employer approaches, 123–124
  - EU and UK legal provisions, 122–123
  - flexible workplaces, 134
  - labour market, 131
  - legal framework, limitations of individualized approach, 127–129 limited and weak regulation, 124–127

outdated assumptions, 129–130
light-touch legal intervention, 135 qualitative expert interviews, 132–134

reflections on, 136–138
UK working time model, 138–139
unskilled workers, 135